2024-2025 FLORENCE L.A. JONES SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION AND GUIDELINES

Florence L.A. Jones began her life's journey on November 4, 1942 in Sussex County, Virginia. She attended Plank Road Elementary School and graduated as Valedictorian in 1962 of her Senior Class from Central High School. A very dear friend recognized strong potential in her to accomplish more and helped Florence realize her dream of going to college. In 1970 she graduated from Virginia State University with a Bachelor of Science Degree. She was an active member of the Virginia State College (University) Alumni Association. She joined the Bethany Baptist Church in Petersburg, Virginia while attending Virginia State College.

After graduating from Virginia State University in 1970, Florence was employed by the Department of Army where she remained for more than 30 years. She traveled extensively and attended many seminars and training classes. In 1978 she became an Auditor with the Internal Review Directorate in the Office of Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Army. Throughout her tenure with the Department of Army, she received many outstanding performance awards and commendations.

Florence joined the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church August 1, 1980. She was a dedicated member of the Ezekiel Missionary Ministry. She served as the secretary, vice-president and president. It was a familiar sight at Mount Pleasant to see Florence with a stack of papers—work that had to get done so that someone would not go without. She volunteered her time to the Congressional Black Caucus for several years. Florence L.A. Jones departed this life on June 28, 2002.
