Benediction

Pastor Carl M. Johnson

Stacey Bien-Aimé is a faith-led communicator who cares deeply about healing, honesty, and helping people feel seen. She's currently pursuing her M.A. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling at Bowie State and holds a Master of Divinity from Howard University.

Her work flows from real life, prayer, scripture, hard conversations, and quiet moments that shape the soul. She's known as a safe space, someone people naturally open up to.

Born to Haitian immigrants, Stacey is a first-gen college grad, a daughter, sister, friend, Godmom, and auntie. She finds joy in simple things—herbal tea, good laughs, and everyday reminders that God is near.
