Biography
Minister Khadeejah Honesty

Khadeejah Simone Honesty is a devoted mother, creative entrepreneur, and emerging minister who has been a proud member of Mount Pleasant Baptist Church since 2010. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Fashion Retail Management and Marketing, skillfully blending her eye for creativity with her passion for ministry.

For the past six years, Khadeejah has operated her lifestyle brand, Soultry, full-time. What began as a creative venture has now evolved into a faith-based self-care brand dedicated to helping women heal, grow, and reconnect with God.

At Mount Pleasant, Khadeejah faithfully serves in several ministries, including the Juvenile Detention Outreach, Sunday School teaching, the Creative Production Team, and as co-lead of the Young Adult Ministry. She is also the creator and host of the "Maybe I'm Too Honest" podcast, where she facilitates transparent conversations about faith, healing, and purpose.

Guided by her prophetic giftings and a confirming word spoken over her life in 2020, Khadeejah walks boldly in her calling to share God's truth with authenticity and love. Passionate about discipleship and creative ministry, she is committed to using every platform—both inside and outside the church—to draw others closer to Christ.
