Reverend Dr. Tracey Dawkins Holley is the ninth Pastor of Mount Olive Baptist Church in Culpeper, Virginia, where she made history as the first woman to lead the congregation in its 155-year history. Under her leadership, Mount Olive was recognized as Culpeper's "Most Respected House of Worship" in the Culpeper Times Best of the Best 2026.

A native of Detroit, Michigan, Dr. Holley is a devoted wife, mother, preacher, teacher, and visionary leader. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Howard University and both the Master of Divinity and Doctor of Ministry degrees from the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University.

Dr. Holley left the corporate world to lead the Christian Education Department for a church in Northern Virginia, where she is still employed.

Dr. Holley has faithfully served the church and community through leadership, education, and missions, and was elected Third Vice President of the Baptist General Convention of Virginia in 2026. Above all, she is passionate about sharing the hope of Jesus Christ and seeing lives transformed by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Dr. Holley is reminded:

"Had it not been for the Lord on my side where would I be." She gives all glory and honor to the Lord for the provisions made in her life and for the confidence of knowing that "He who hath begun a good work in [her] will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ." (Philippians 1:6).
