

There are Scripture verses all around the room that all tie into a certain topic (feel free to write it above when you figure it out). Please take your time to look up verses (use whatever you like, Google, Bible apps, actual Bibles) and try and figure out what you can learn from each verse about that topic. Work together, work alone, up to you. Do your best to not just “take someone else’s work”, but look up the Scriptures yourself as you talk about them and work through them. Also, context is important, you may want to read more than just the actual verse.

The one thing I know for sure about Jesus is:
