

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

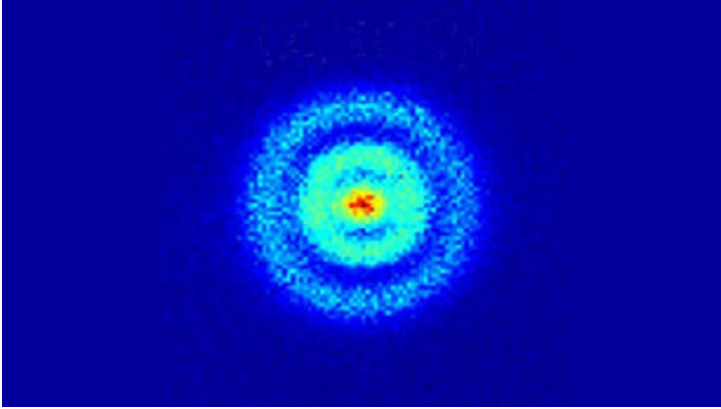

¹Faith makes us sure of what we hope for and gives us proof of what we cannot see.

Hebrews 11:1 (CEV)

Draw the biggest thing you can think of ²⁰He told them, "It was because of your little faith. I tell you the truth, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; nothing will be impossible for you."

Matthew 17:20 (NET)

The first direct observation of the orbital structure of an excited hydrogen atom, made using a newly developed "quantum microscope." (Stodolna et al. / Physical Review Letters)
This photo is from 2013. We had not direct pictures of an atom until after you were born.
All the light blue is the single electron skipping around

The one thing I know for sure about Jesus is:

