

Conversations with Jesus

The conversation we will be looking at today can be found in John 3.

Which part did you read?

How did it feel to read this as a conversation?

What scares you the most in a conversation, you being honest with the other person or them being honest with you? Why?

What did this person learn about themselves and about Jesus from this conversation?

Jesus didn't let culture dictate who He talked to

Are there certain people you feel you "shouldn't" talk to? Who? Why?

Jesus didn't condemn, He showed compassion

Do you think your friends are scared to talk to "holy" people? Are you? Why?

He drew her into conversation

Is it hard for you to talk less? Why or why not?

The one thing I know for sure about Jesus is:
