

6th-12th Graders! Join us Sunday evenings from 6:30pm-8:30pm for a time of games, student-led worship, biblical teaching, and small group time. From 7:30 to 8:30 on those nights, there is a group that meets in the office to pray for our students, schools, and teachers. Please join us!

Applications are still open for adult volunteers (due by Thursday, 2/1)! Go to FlowerCityWorkCamp.org for more information or to sign up.

Due to the youth retreat, there will be no IMPACT or evening prayer group tonight

Doxology

Throughout the Psalms, ‘headings’ will precede the text. Sometimes the heading supplies the author, makes a musical reference or names the event that provoked the writing of the Psalm.

Such is the case here.

Psalm 18 is the longest, so far, in our journey through the Psalms. (six days, following the PCC Psalm Calendar). The heading teaches this Psalm was written by David and addressed to God in memory of his rescue “from all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul”.

Flip over to 2 Samuel 22, you’ll find the first version of Psalm 18. The two texts are almost identical. Why is this “Song of David” repeated?

Because we - God’s people who worship Him today - embrace the grateful heart of David, too. In our King Jesus, we have been rescued from great peril, saved from the ruthless enemy and take eternal refuge in our God.

The roses on the altar are in honor of the 10 founding members of PCC. We remember them every January.

Looking for some people to do life with? Small Groups are a great place to start building community and lifelong friendships. Groups meet together to study the Bible, share prayer requests, support each other, and socialize! To get connected, fill out the form by scanning the QR code, or stop by the Welcome Center.
