

Dr. Halvorson continues our series in 1 Corinthians with a message titled When Death Died (1 Corinthians 15:29–34). This week, we'll wrestle with the reality that following Jesus often includes pressure and sacrifice, while also holding fast to the life-changing hope of the resurrection. As Paul challenges cultural influences and calls us to live with spiritual clarity, we'll consider what it means to trust Christ with our fears, losses, and everyday decisions—moving the promise of resurrection from theory into real, present hope.

We will also have the honor of baptizing children in both the 9:45 and 11:15am services.

On this 75th annual National Day of Prayer, plan to visit the MDPC Chapel where stations will be set up for you to spend time with God and others in prayer. Come and go as God leads you to lift up our church, our community, our nation, and the world in prayer.

Today, 7am-5pm • MDPC Chapel

This Mother's Day, we celebrate and give thanks for the women who love, nurture, and care for others in so many meaningful ways. We also recognize this day can be difficult for some—carrying grief, loss, or longing. Please know you are seen and cared for. Wherever this day finds you, we pray you experience God's peace and presence. We hope you'll join us Sunday as we honor and hold space for every heart. A special Mother's Day photo opportunity and a sweet treat will be available in the Sanctuary breezeway.

Wednesday Night Summer Bible Study returns! We will spend the first two weeks in the book of Jude with Dr. Laurien Hook, followed by two weeks in Jonah with Dr. Clay Brown. Whether you've studied these powerful and often-overlooked books before or are coming to them for the first time, this will be a rich opportunity for learning, discussion, and fellowship in God's Word.

Wednesdays, Jun 10-Jul 1 • 6:30-7:30pm • Summit Room
