Joy on the Journey • Philippians 4:2-9 \(NRSV\)

This is the tenth in our sermon series on Paul's Letter to the Church in Philippi, his "Epistle of Joy." Today's scripture might be the most familiar section in the entire letter, and it is tremendous guidance for us when we are stressed or anxious. But it also reveals the Prince of Peace who we are waiting for this Advent. Peace is only found in and through the Prince of Peace. We light the Candle of Peace this Sunday through our worship videos for families (available at advent.mdpc.org).

1. What is the most stress-producing and anxiety-inducing part of this time of year for you? Is it a person? A place? Preparations? Financial pressures? End-of-year deadlines? Your own or others' expectations? How do you normally try to deal with all the challenges of the season?
2. Read Phil. 4:2-9. In verses 2-3, part of the stress in Philippi is because of disunity between Euodia and Syntyche. Paul "calls them out" but then offers perspective and guidance. What is his advice? Does he pick sides? Are they both Christians to Paul or has one lost the faith?
3. In verses 4-5, why can they rejoice in the Lord, according to Paul? What does it mean for the Christian to ponder, believe, and live knowing "The Lord is near"?
4. In verses 6-7, Paul's advice is to not stew without doing (worry), but to instead pray. Why is that good advice? Do you take it? And what is the promise associated with us turning worry into worship (prayer, supplication, thanksgiving)?
5. In verse 8-9, I talked about how Christianity (as opposed to most other Eastern religions) is a filling tradition not an emptying tradition. What does Paul advise us to fill our minds and hearts with this Advent/Christmas season? Practice doing that right now.
6. Paul finishes this fantastic section with advice in verse 9 to keep doing the things we have learned and heard and seen in him and Jesus, assuring that the God of peace will be with us. Why does peace need to be brought up twice in this passage? And why is the doing of the faith important, not just thinking about it? How might you put some of Paul's advice into practice this week, so that the "the peace which surpasses all understanding can guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus"?

MDPC NEW MEMBERS

Introduced in worship on
Sun, Dec 10, 2023

We are excited to welcome these 29 new members to the MDPC family! Learn a little more about them below, and join us in welcoming them to MDPC.

Don Baird is married to Becky (Weatherall) Baird. He is currently with Silver Fox Advisors doing business consulting for small for-profit and non-profit organizations pro bono, as well as doing prison ministry with the Prison Entrepreneurial Program.

Liz Esch has been attending MDPC since last fall. She has two children, Matthew and Megan. Liz loves entertaining and traveling with friends and family.

Nancy and Bruce Barclay have been married for 38 years. They laugh a lot and are thankful for moments shared, keep busy with hobbies and friends, and have one daughter (Lisa) and two grandchildren (Aubrey and Cooper). Bruce is from Houston and met Nancy while attending LSU. Bruce retired two years ago after a 42-year career in commercial banking in Houston.

Pete and Dorothy Foster have two children, Sarah (41) and David (39), and enjoy spending time with their grandson William (5). Pete is a retired attorney/landman after 48 years in the oil industry. Dorothy retired from an accounting career in the oil industry to raise her family.

Benjamin Bass grew up in San Antonio attending First Presbyterian Church. He and his wife, Annie, met at Texas A&M, were married at MDPC, and welcomed a baby girl, Marigold Louise, this September. An engineer by trade, Benjamin currently works for a digital technology studio here in Houston.

Olga Griffin is married to Tom Griffin and has two grown daughters, two wonderful sons-in-law, and four fabulous grandchildren. Her passion is for women to grow more in love with Jesus and for lives to be changed by Him.

Holly Blausen has two boys, John (24) and Luke (20). She teaches fourth grade and enjoys her cottage in Northern Wisconsin.

Virginia Harris and her husband, Russell, have two children, James (2) and Bennett (10 months). She is a stay-at-home mom and loves to cook, eat, entertain, and spend time with family and friends.

James and Natasha Breaux have three children, Arabelle (5), Coraline (3), and Jameson (1). James is a commercial insurance broker, and Natasha is an appellate litigation attorney. While not working, they enjoy spending time outdoors and traveling.

Kirk and Lisa Hawkins have two children, Hayley (21) and Seth (18). Kirk is a graphic designer and Lisa works with STEM and innovation in high schools. They enjoy staying active, travel, and spending time with family and friends.

Georgia Drager graduated from Baylor University in August, where she studied Apparel Design and Product Development and Business. She now works as an Assistant Buyer and is excited to join this church community. She hopes to strengthen her faith through a meaningful relationship with the church and its members.

Daniel and Kristina Lakenmacher are proud new parents of Nora (1). They enjoy traveling and spending time with family. Daniel works in oil and gas and Kristina is a pediatric dietitian at Texas Children's Hospital.

Anne and Zach Ormsby have two daughters, Ellie (4) and Charlotte (1.5). Zach works in tax consulting and Anne is a real estate paralegal. They love to travel, spend time with their friends and family, are avid sports fans, and love to cook.

Roy and Hunter Smith have one daughter, Louise (6 months). Hunter works in the Philanthropy at MD Anderson and Roy is a music producer. They love to spend time with family, attend sporting events, and cook.

John and Moriah Snelling are newlyweds looking forward to starting their family. They enjoy spending time with their friends and family, and of course their yellow Lab, Bo. John and Moriah were married here at MDPC and are excited to join the church community!

Jeffrey and DeLisa Strege have two adult children, Olivia and Keith. Jeff is a corporate risk manager and DeLisa teaches second grade. They enjoy traveling and spending time at their house on Lake Tyler.

John and Kim Thompson share seven kids and six grandchildren. John is a retired judge and enjoys consulting on issues surrounding economic development and transportation. Kim is the Chief Development Officer for A21, a global organization working to combat human trafficking. John and Kim both enjoy spending time with family and friends, traveling, and can often be found spending relaxing holidays and long weekends at their family farm in Louisiana.

David and Nia Watson have three children, Walker (14), Gracie (13), and Annie (7). David works in private equity at Voyager Interests and Nia is a stay-at-home mom. They love spending time together as a family, hunting, fishing, and traveling.
