ABOUT THIS DIRECTORY

Information contained herein is current as of Apr 20, 2024. Every attempt has been made to provide accurate information, but if you notice an error, please send corrections to Ginny Glass at gglass@mdpc.org.

Responsibilities of Elders

(From Section 7.5 of the MDPC Policy and Operations Manual)

(1) to represent the larger congregation, and (2) to lead the congregation. More specifically, MDPC's elders are called by God to lead by example by:

- a. Attending worship services regularly;
- b. Participating in some form of Sunday School and/or small group;
- c. Praying regularly for MDPC's participants, staff and ministries;
- d. Supporting MDPC through faithful and generous stewardship;
- e. Working with pastors and staff to discern God's will for MDPC;
- f. Serving faithfully in the ministry to which the elder has been elected to serve;
- g. Preparing for and attending stated and called meetings of Session. Absences must be reported to the Clerk of Session or the Executive Ministries Coordinator;
- h. Attending the annual officer retreat, usually scheduled for the fourth Friday and Saturday in January;
- i. If needed, serving as presbytery or synod commissioners during their term on Session;
- j. Serving communion at least three times per year;
- k. Participating in the examination of the annual Confirmation class;
- l. Providing leadership and vision for MDPC Programs;
- m. Attending ministry area committee meetings and executing programs by working with the staff, elders and laity;
- n. Monitoring conformance to budget in area of ministry; and
- o. Ensuring that policies and procedures established for the ministry area are followed.

Responsibilities of Deacons

(From Section 9.5 of the MDPC Policy and Operations Manual)

Discipleship—to be strengthened for church leadership, deacons must abide in Christ and grow in His likeness. Therefore, deacons are called to practice the spiritual disciplines more faithfully than ever and to:

- a. Worship regularly;
- b. Participate in some form of Sunday School or small group;
- c. Pray for the spiritual health of the church, the congregation, and its leaders;
- d. Give faithfully and systematically—percentage giving with a goal of tithing;
- e. Fellowship—support church programs and activities, particularly small groups;
- f. Serve and care for others with love and humility;
- g. Share God's love and the Good News of Jesus Christ;
- h. Be part of MDPC's Communion serving team;
- i. Provide prayerful leadership for MDPC Ministries;
- j. Attend regularly scheduled and called deacon team meetings. The team will meet at least quarterly but may meet monthly if needed;k.
- k. Prepare for meetings by prayerfully considering where God is at work in MPDC, reviewing meeting docket, and committee minutes distributed in advance; and
- l. Attend the Annual Officer Retreat.
