PRAYER FOR PREPARATION

Almighty God, through Jesus Christ you bring salvation to the world. Give us strength to believe in him that we may share in his victory over the power of death and fulfill the purpose for which you have made us, for he dwells with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Felix Mendelssohn

CALL TO WORSHIP (responsive)

Leader: O give thanks to the Lord, who is good,

All: God's steadfast love endures forever.

Leader: Let the redeemed of the Lord say so,

All: Those God redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands.

*HYMN 624

I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art
See the next page for hymn.

TOULON

*To all who are able, please stand as we offer God thanks and praise.

Bold type face indicates that the congregation participates in word or song.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Leader: This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, for people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. Let us uncover our sin before the liberating light of Christ.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Holy God, we have taken Christ's sacrifice too lightly. We see his suffering and death, and we do not want to follow the path that leads to the cross. We do not share Jesus' sorrow for our sin. Grant us your forgiveness and the courage to seek the same mind as Christ Jesus. In his name we pray.

A TIME FOR SILENT PRAYER

KYRIE

Leader: Lord, have mercy.

People: Christ, have mercy.

All: Lord, have mercy

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Leader: Hear the good news: The mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting. In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, freed and empowered to live as joyful servants of God and one another.

THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

Almighty God, by the power of the Holy Spirit, open your Word and illumine our darkened world, that we may see clearly and live faithfully by the light of your truth in Jesus Christ. Amen.

I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art 624

1 I greet thee, who my sure Re-deem-er art,
 2 Thou art the King of mer-cy and of grace,
 3 Thou art the life, by which a-lone we live,
 4 Thou hast the true and per-fect gen-tle-ness;
 5 Our hope is in no oth-er save in thee;

my on-ly trust and Sav-ior of my heart,
 reign-ing om-ni-po-tent in ev-ery place:
 and all our sub-stance and our strength re-ceive;
 no harsh-ness hast thou and no bit-ter-ness.
 our faith is built up-on thy prom-ise free;

who pain didst un-der-go for my poor sake;
 so come, O King, and our whole be-ing sway;
 sus-tain us by thy faith and by thy power,
 O grant to us the grace we find in thee,
 Lord, give us peace, and make us calm and sure,

I pray thee from our hearts all cares to take.
 shine on us with the light of thy pure day.
 and give us strength in ev-ery try-ing hour.
 that we may dwell in per-fect u-ni-ty.
 that in thy strength we ev-er-more en-dure.

The original French text, sometimes attributed to John Calvin, seems to be a Protestant reworking of a Roman Catholic hymn, not a typical practice for him. Yet this text and tune (adapted from GENEVAN 124) clearly date from the early years of the Reformed tradition.

FIRST LESSON: John 3:14-21

This is the Word of the Lord!
Thanks be to God!

PSALM 107:1-3, 17-22 (unison)

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever.

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so,
those he redeemed from trouble
and gathered in from the lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.

Some were sick through their sinful ways
and because of their iniquities endured affliction;
they loathed any kind of food,
and they drew near to the gates of death.

Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble,
and he saved them from their distress;
he sent out his word and healed them
and delivered them from destruction.

Let them thank the Lord for his steadfast love,
for his wonderful works to humankind.
And let them offer thanksgiving sacrifices and tell of his deeds with songs of joy.

SECOND LESSON: Ephesians 2:1-10

This is the Word of the Lord!
Thanks be to God!

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: FROM A DECLARATION OF FAITH (unison)

We believe that in the death of Jesus on the cross God achieved and demonstrated once for all the costly forgiveness of our sins. Jesus Christ is the Reconciler between God and the world. He acted on behalf of sinners as one of us, fulfilling the obedience God demands of us, accepting God's condemnation of our sinfulness.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (Unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Come, Thou Fount

arr. Craig Courtney

Come, thou fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet
Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it,
Mount of thy redeeming love.

(Anthem continues on the next page.)

Here I raise my Ebenezer,
Hither by thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to thee:
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, O take and seal it,
Seal it for thy courts above.

POSTLUDE

Postludium in G Major

Fanny Mendelssohn/Hensel

The service of worship concludes after the postlude. The music can be enjoyed or used as an opportunity for prayer. You may remain seated; if you wish to depart, please do so quietly and without disturbing those who choose to stay.

✧ NOTES ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC ✧

This morning's prelude is the closing movement of Felix Mendelssohn's third organ sonata. Mendelssohn, who lived from 1809-1847, was a prolific German composer, pianist, organist, and conductor in the opening of the Romantic period. He championed the music of J. S. Bach, which had fallen out of favor. The crown jewels of Mendelssohn's organ compositions would be his six organ sonatas, each of which consist of multiple movements named for their tempo markings.

Performing our prelude is Gianna Gibson. Gianna, a native of Williamsburg, is an eighth grade home-schooled student. She studies piano and pipe organ under the direction of Rebecca Davy. Besides her love of music, Gianna enjoys drawing, ceramics, observing nature, and video games.

Our postlude is by Felix Mendelssohn's sister, Fanny Hensel. Fanny was a notable composer in her own right, though her career was hampered by societal expectations placed upon women. Her father would write, comparing her future with her brother's, "Music will perhaps become his profession, while for you it can and must be only an ornament". Felix and Fanny would stay close, championing each other's music. Felix was due to compose the recessional for Fanny's wedding to Wilhelm Hensel, but was unable to attend due to an injury abroad. The problem was not solved by the evening before the wedding, when the family was in the midst of a lavish celebration. She would later write to her brother, "At about 9, Hensel suggested that I should simply do it myself, and I had the impertinence to start right away in front of all those present and was finished around 1, and I do believe it is not bad ... The wedding-eve party was very nice". The resulting composition is Fanny Hensel's Postludium in G Major. .

✧ THE CHANCEL FLOWERS ✧

The flowers are given today to the glory of God and in loving memory of his wife, Gladys, by Leon Looney.

634

To God Be the Glory

1 To God be the glo - ry; great things he has done!
 2 Great things he has taught us; great things he has done,

So loved he the world that he gave us his Son,
 and great our re - joic - ing through Je - sus the Son;

who yield - ed his life an a - tone - ment for sin, but pur - er and high - er and great - er will be

and o - pened the life - gate that all may go in.
 our won - der, our trans - port, when Je - sus we see.

(refrain on the next page.)

This American gospel song became popular in England in the late 19th century, then returned to this country in the mid-20th century with the Billy Graham crusades. Its continuing popularity may well be due to the freedom from subjective considerations in its praise of God.

Refrain

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord; let the earth hear his voice!

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord; let the people rejoice!

O come to the Father through Jesus the Son,

and give him the glory: great things he has done!
