PRAYER FOR PREPARATION

Wondrous Vinegrower, you make all things new in water and Word, feeding your people with love, joy, and peace. Lead us today and every day to the font of new beginnings. Teach us to love what you have commanded and to prune what does not nourish your creation, in the name of the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, one God, now and forever. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP (responsive)

Leader: God's love, strong and true,

All: Beckons us to walk on with hope in each step,
Lures us home, to the place just right.

Leader: God's love, everlasting and bold,

All: Sustains us when fear closes in and worry overwhelms,
Surprises us with glimpses of wonder and bursts of joy.

Leader: God's love, gentle yet persistent,

All: Graces us with rest in the midst of busyness,
Hounds us to follow the good path.

(Call to Worship continues on the next page.)

*Please rise in body or spirit.

Bold type face congregation participates in word or song.

Leader: God's love, abundant and uplifting,

All: Dances around us like waves on the shore,
Dwells in us as a song steeped in praise.

Leader: God's love, forever leading us to sing and pray, serve and praise.

*HYMN 485

We Know That Christ Is Raised

ENGELBERT

*CALL TO CONFESSION

Leader: Trusting in the mercy of God, let us confess to God and to one another our failure to love our neighbor.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

God of mercy, we confess that we have not borne the fruit of the Spirit. We have not loved others as you have loved us. We have denied the promises of baptism and cut ourselves off from you. Forgive us, restore us, that we may abide in your love and live out your mercy, for the sake of Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

A TIME FOR SILENT PRAYER

*KYRIE

LAND OF REST

*ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Leader: You have already been cleansed by the word that God has spoken to you. In baptism God claimed you and joined you to Christ, as branches to a vine. Believe the promise given to you: in Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

Beginning with an allusion to Romans 6:9, this exuberant baptismal hymn unfolds the implications of our incorporation into Christ's new life, making us "a new creation" (2 Corinthians 5:17). The text was written to fit this expansive tune by a distinguished British composer.

THE WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION (unison)

Come, Holy Spirit, that through your word we may be guided into the love of God for all the world. Amen.

FIRST LESSON: John 15:1-8

This is the Word of the Lord!
Thanks be to God!

PSALM 22:25-31 (unison)

From you comes my praise in the great congregation;
my vows I will pay before those who fear him.
The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek him shall praise the Lord.
May your hearts live forever!
All the ends of the earth shall remember
and turn to the Lord,
and all the families of the nations
shall worship before him.
For dominion belongs to the Lord,
and he rules over the nations.

(Psalm continues on the next page.)

To him, indeed, shall all who sleep in the earth bow down;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust,
and I shall live for him.

Posterity will serve him;
future generations will be told about the Lord
and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn,
saying that he has done it.

SECOND LESSON: I John 4:7-21

This is the Word of the Lord!
Thanks be to God!

SERMON

"Perfect Love Casts Out Fear"

Rev. John E. Morgan

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

*HYMN 300

We Are One in the Spirit
(Hymn is on the next page.)

THEY'LL KNOW WE ARE CHRISTIANS

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: FROM A DECLARATION OF FAITH (unison)

We need constantly to search out God's way in Scripture, not expecting detailed directions for every decision, but relying on the Word to tell us who God is, to press God's present claim on us, and to assure us of God's grace and comfort. We are charged to pray for ourselves and others with gratitude, boldness, and persistence, confident that God hears and answers our prayers in ways best for us all. Life in God's presence issues in life for others, for if we do not love sisters and brothers whom we see, we cannot love God whom we do not see.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

A parish priest at St. Brendan's on the South Side of Chicago in the 1960s was very involved in the local Civil Rights movement and needed something for his youth choir to sing at ecumenical, interracial events. Finding nothing, he wrote this song in a single day.

OFFERTORY

Hark, I Hear the Harps Eternal

arr. Alice Parker

Hark, I hear the harps eternal
Ringing on the farther shore,
As I hear those swollen waters,
With their deep and solemn roar.

Refrain:

Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
Hallelujah, praise the Lamb,
Hallelujah, Hallelujah,
Glory to the great I AM.

And my soul though stained with sorrow,
Fading as the light of day,
Passes swiftly o'er those waters
To the city far away. (Refrain)

Souls have crossed before me, saintly,
To that land of perfect rest;
And I hear them singing faintly
In the mansions of the blest. (Refrain)

This text and this tune occur in almost all English-language hymnals (though not always together). The transforming power of love motivates the unending praise of the life to come, and this fine Welsh tune (whose name means “delightful”) gives us a foretaste of endless song.

❧ NOTES ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC ❧

“Hark, I Hear the Harps Eternal” is a setting of a hymn tune first published in The Southern Harmony in 1834. The singer of the hymn is approaching heaven, which is symbolized by a river, and hears the “harps eternal” on the “farther shore.” The singer hears “faintly” the praises of the saints that have gone before him, in the joyful chorus of repeated Hallelujahs.

Arranger Alice Parker was a towering figure in choral music. She arranged music for the Robert Shaw Chorale for over twenty years, wrote vocal music in every genre, and was a fierce advocate for church music and congregational singing. Alice passed away last December at the age of 98, and we're singing one of her most well-known anthems in part in tribute to her.

❧ THE CHANCEL FLOWERS ❧

The flowers are given today to the glory of God and in celebration of the marriage yesterday of their grandson, Wade and his wife, Erin. Wishing them a lifetime of happiness by Jackie and Gerry Ward.
