PRAYER FOR PREPARATION

Hope sings the tune without the words and never stops at all. Even when pains demands to be felt. Come into the peace of the wild things. Who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. Come into the presence of still water. Rest in the grace of the world and be free.

Inspired by the writings of Emily Dickinson, John Green, and Wendell Berry

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: God of Welcome, your people are called to be distinct

All: not by width of separation but depth of the hospitality and peace in our lives;

Leader: root out our resentment and free us to welcome all

This 20th-century ballad-like retelling of the life of Christ, though written for this Shaker tune, has many similarities with the pre-Reformation carol "Tomorrow shall be my dancing day." Such narrative carols were common both at Christmas and as part of medieval mystery plays.

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

Almighty God, forgive our selfishness and lack of understanding of other nations. Forgive our indifference to the many who are not free, and even suffer for their faith. Forgive, O God, our poor stewardship of resources you have so generously given to us. Forgive our disregard of the painful struggle of the few on behalf of the many who suffer oppression and neglect.

PSALM 4:1, 6-8 (Responsive)

Leader: Answer me when I cry out, my righteous God!
Set me free from my troubles!

All: Have mercy on me!
Listen to my prayer!

Leader: Many people say,
We can't find goodness anywhere.
The light of your face has left us, Lord!"

All: But you have filled my heart with more joy than when their wheat and wine are everywhere!
I will lie down and fall asleep in peace
because you alone, Lord, let me live in safety.

This hymn is a 21st-century adaptation of the traditional Celtic prayer style known as a lorica (Latin for "armor" or "breastplate"). Many such petitions for God's presence and protection were never written down, but this one is based on an example attributed to St. Patrick.

MUSICAL REFLECTION

Here I Am, Lord

Dan Schutte

Leecy Silk, Josie Summers, Joseph Lorber, and Jack Weisgerber, vocal quartet

I, the Lord of sea and sky,
I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin
my hand will save.
I, who made the stars of night,
I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them?
Whom shall I send?

Refrain:
Here I am, Lord.
Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain,
I have borne my people's pain.
I have wept for love of them.
They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone,
give them hearts for love alone.
I will speak my word to them.
Whom shall I send?
(Refrain)

I, the Lord of wind and flame,
I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them.
My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them.
Whom shall I send?
(Refrain)

Be Thou My Vision

SLANE

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: BY THE INDIA INDUSTRIAL MISSION (Unison)

I believe in one world, full of riches meant for everyone to enjoy;

I believe in one race, the family of mankind, learning how to live together by the hard way of self-sacrifice.

I believe in one life, exciting and positive; which enjoys all the beauty, integrity and science; uses the discipline of work to enrich society; harmonizes with the life of Jesus, and develops into a total joy.

I believe in one morality, love, the holiness of sharing the sorrow and joys of others, bringing together people as true friends, and working to get rid of the root causes of poverty and injustice - ignorance and fear;

Love, the test of all my thoughts and motives;

Love, guiding me, assuring me of God's forgiveness, and giving me confidence under the Spirit's control.

I believe in Jesus, and the Bible's evidence about him; whose life, death and resurrection prove God's lasting love for the world;

Jesus, who combines in himself: life, love, truth, humanity, reality and God;

Jesus, who saves, guides, and unites all people who follow his way.

I believe in the purpose of God, uniting in Christ everything, spiritual and secular; bringing about constructive revolution in society, individuals, and nations; and establishing a world under God's own direction.

This Is My Song

1 This is my song, O God of all the na - tions,
 2 My coun - try's skies are blu - er than the o - cean,
 3 This is my prayer, O Lord of all earth's king - doms:

a song of peace for lands a - far and mine.
 and sun - light beams on clo - ver - leaf and pine.
 thy king - dom come; on earth thy will be done.

This is my home, the coun - try where my heart is;
 But oth - er lands have sun - light too, and clo - ver,
 Let Christ be lift - ed up till all shall serve him,

here are my hopes, my dreams, my ho - ly shrine;
 and skies are ev - ery - where as blue as mine.
 and hearts u - nit - ed learn to live as one.

The first two stanzas of this hymn were written between the 20th century's two world wars and focus on the theme of international peace. The third stanza, by another author and added later, uses the language of the Lord's Prayer to voice a distinctly Christian perspective.

∞ NOTES ABOUT TODAY'S MUSIC ∞

This morning's postlude is from the pen of Samuel Coleridge-Taylor (1875-1912), a prominent Black composer living in London. His father was a descendent of African-American slaves who repatriated to England following the American Revolutionary War. With promising musical talent, he attended the Royal College of Music at age 15, studied with Charles Villiers Stanford, and went on to compose instrumental and choral works. He aspired to incorporate elements of traditional African music into classical composition. In 1904, a visit to the United States included a reception with President Theodore Roosevelt. Coleridge-Taylor passed away at the age of 37 due to pneumonia, likely related to financial stress.

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING — SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2024

The Annual Meeting of the Congregation for the purpose of electing six Elders and ten Deacons for the Class of 2027, one member to a three-year term on the Endowment Committee, four members to the Congregational Nominating Committee of 2024-25 and approval of the term of call for John E. Morgan, Pastor/Head of Staff and Pam Hrcir as Designated Pastor, will be held on Sunday, February 18, 2024, after our 9:30am worship service. All members of WPC are invited to attend.

∞ ANNOUNCEMENTS ∞

- Usher, Greeter, and Coffee Fellowship Sign Ups in Stevenson Hall TODAY! Have you been looking for an opportunity to get involved in the Sunday morning action at WPC? Please stop by the tables in Stevenson Hall today to learn more and sign up to host Coffee Fellowship, Usher, or Greet during the months of February, March, or April. No previous experience necessary and all ages are welcome!

Feel free to sign up online for any Sunday in 2024 from the comfort of your home by going to <https://signup.com/go/iGCDndF>

- Celebrations and Concerns Ministry: Are you or someone you know struggling with a life or health issue or celebrating a joyous event such as a special birthday, anniversary or the birth of a child/grandchild? If so, WPC's Celebrations and Concerns Ministry wants to support our church family with cards to celebrate your joys and share your challenges. Please help us to share God's love with you either by noting it on a prayer request card (found in the pew Friendship Registers and the Welcome Center) or calling the church office at 757-229-4235.
- Volunteers Needed for Homeless Shelter on February 22-23: Although WPC has already hosted the Homeless Shelter at WPC this year, we have agreed to partner with our friends at St. Martins Episcopal Church on Jamestown Road to staff a night during their shelter week. Our night will be the evening of Thursday, February 22 through the early morning of Friday, February 23. We need volunteers for the following four shifts:
 - (1) kitchen volunteers to prepare and serve dinner from 5pm to 8pm (February 22)
 - (2) check-in from 5:15pm to 8:45pm (February 22)
 - (3) overnight from 8:45pm to 7am (February 22-23)
 - (4) breakfast and checkout from 5:15am to 7am (February 23)

It takes approximately 13-15 volunteers to staff the shelter.

If you are interested in volunteering for this very important ministry to aid our area's homeless, please contact *Jim Winthrop.

- The Upper Elementary Sunday School Class (Grades 3, 4 and 5) is currently collecting food to support The Grove Christian Outreach Center. We began this mission project in 2016 and collected 81 pounds of food which in turn served over 100 meals. Since that time our largest collection weighed in at 509 pounds! With your help, our goal is to continue to increase our donation and provide even more meals. We will be collecting donations in our classroom every Sunday from now through mid-March. Suggestions for donations include nonperishable foods such as canned fruit and vegetables, canned meat and fish, nuts, soups, pasta, breakfast foods and peanut butter. Thank you for your support in making this project a success.

- WPC Families Galentine’s Day” Favorite Things Party will take place in Stevenson Hall on Friday, February 16, at 5:30pm. Everyone is welcome! If you don’t celebrate Valentine’s Day in the traditional way (flowers, candy, dinner out, etc.), or are just looking for a fun evening with great friends, this is the night for you! Join us and celebrate with your “Gal Pals.” Bring three of your favorite things and go home with three of your friends’ favorite things! Dinner is provided for all (registered) participants, and dinner/childcare for elementary age and younger will be available for this night. Please go to mywpc.org, and click on the calendar link for more information on how to participate and to register.
- The WPC Book Club will meet on Monday, February 26, 2024, at 2 pm in room 220 located on the second floor (and on Zoom) to discuss West with Giraffes, by Lynda Rutledge.

Contact information can be found in our online directory.

You may also contact the church office at 757-229-4235.
