WORDS OF WELCOME

Pastor Matthew Johnson, Associate Pastor BUMC

HYMN #340 (UMH)

Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy
Vocal Ensemble

- (1) Come, ye sinners, poor and needy,
weak and wounded, sick and sore;
Jesus ready stands to save you,
full of pity, love, and power. (Refrain)
- (2) Come, ye thirsty, come, and welcome,
God's free bounty glorify;
true belief and true repentance,
every grace that brings you nigh. (Refrain)
- (3) Come ye weary, heavy laden,
lost and ruined by the fall;
if you tarry till you're better,
you will never come at all. (Refrain)
- (4) Let not conscience make you linger,
nor of fitness fondly dream;
all the fitness he requireth
is to feel your need of him. (Refrain)

(Refrain)
I will arise and go to Jesus;
he will embrace me with his arms;
in the arms of my dear Savior,
O there are ten thousand charms.

PRAYER

Pastor Rick Carlson, First UMC West Dundee

THE LORD'S PRAYER #895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Luke 12: 13-21

Lynn Grant

¹³ Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." ¹⁴ But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" ¹⁵ And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." ¹⁶ Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. ¹⁷ And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' ¹⁸ Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹ And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' ²⁰ But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' ²¹ So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

Your help is needed . . . our Congregational Garden is besieged with weeds!

Come any morning at 8:30 to join the team trying to keep the plants healthy and the weeds a distant ugly memory. Only have an hour? We will take it. Dress for the weather; the garden is muddy after rain (boots are helpful), and in beautiful sunny weather (make sure you have a hat). Always bring gardening gloves, and if you have a dandelion digger, that is helpful. We have mosquito spray for us to use. Bring a water bottle – we can always refill them. Not sure what to do? Bill West is there to help guide you, and you will be gladly welcomed. If you would prefer to weed in the afternoon, evening, or on the weekends but have not done it before, contact the church office to set up an orientation date. After that, you can come out anytime you wish.

Garden Picnic Day, Wednesday, July 31

All students entering grades 6 through 12 are invited for some volunteer time in the garden. We'll work for a while and then share a picnic lunch together. Start time will be announced in the God's Squad GroupMe closer to the date.

Celebration of the Music Ministry of Seth Durbin

On Seth's last day, Sunday, August 4, we will celebrate his ministry. If you would like to express your appreciation for his tenure here, there will be an opportunity to leave a love offering for him after the service. Contributions may also be given online at barringtonumc.com/give. We are so grateful for the musicianship and collegiality Seth has gifted us with during his 10 years at Barrington UMC.

Youth Summer Book Club, Sunday, August 11
Students, grade 6 through 12, are invited to join us after second service for a book discussion and light lunch. We will discuss “Empire of Shadows” by Jacqueline Benson. For more information, please reach out to Ana Kelsey-Powell, akelsey-powell@barringtonumc.com.

Jacquelyn Benson writes smart historical fantasy where strong women confront the stranger things that occupy the borders of our world.

Chris Tomlin’s World Tour at NOW Arena!
Students, grades 6 through 12, are invited to an exciting night at the Chris Tomlin concert at NOW Arena on Friday, November 15. Ana Kelsey-Powell will lead our group, and we would love for you to be a part of it! If you are interested, please let Ana know by Sunday, August 4, so we can secure tickets: akelsey-powell@barringtonumc.com. The cost for each family is $25 per ticket.

Climate Justice: A Call to Hope and Action

Wednesdays, August 21 through September 25, 7 p.m. in Room 111 or online

We live on a small blue planet in the midst of a mind-bogglingly huge universe. It is a fragile planet, and it’s the only one we have to call home. Our responsibility is to learn how to live in right relationship with God, with each other, and with the earth itself. Climate Justice: A Call to Hope and Action invites you to begin setting right our relationships with each other and the earth. Join us for a six week exploration of this vital topic.

LIFT THE WORLD FROM MY SHOULDERS: A DAY FOR PEACE AND HEALING

Saturday, August 24, 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Barrington UMC

Is your spirit weary?
Are you exhausted from our culture and world events?
Have you ever wondered about contemplative practice?
Make space to talk to God about it.

Adults and youth are invited to spend a day in quiet retreat. Engage with others as we experience the Holy Spirit in new ways. Join in group experiences of centering prayer and Lectio Divina. Select from a variety of activities during a time of personal reflection. Walk a prayer labyrinth or learn to pray in color. Enjoy a light lunch and end with a unique worship experience.

Register through the QR code or contact the church office at 847-836-5540.
