THE LORD'S PRAYER #895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE

Luke 3: 15-17, 21-22

Linda Snyder

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

Radicle Methodism: Back to Our Roots by Ashley Boggan D.

Practical Christianity for Men, Saturdays, 9 to 10 a.m. in BUMC Room 111 or on Zoom

This four-module course was put together by the General Commission on Archives and History. “Radicle” refers to a foundational part of a plant. In this online video history course, we talk about root systems, what that has to do with Methodism, and what it means to be United Methodist. As we journey together through these radicle moments, we hope you are reminded of what it means to be United Methodist, to follow in our founder's footsteps, and to be in connection with one another. ## Soup “er” Chili Sunday | Sunday, February 9, from noon – 2:30 p.m.

Join us in Fellowship Hall before the BIG Game for soup and/or chili and fellowship. This year, we will not award prizes but still invite all you great chefs to show us what you've got! Bring a pot of your favorite soup or chili to share.

We will also be taking a “poll” of who will win the Super Bowl by dropping a donation in each team's respective basket. We will announce our favorite team at the close of our time together – so we can watch the game and see how accurate we are! Please sign up using the QR code.
