

Specific Questions: Text: 1Corinthians 13:1-13

1. Does it surprise you that people would want a Christian community experience without Christian teaching? Why?
2. What conclusions do you draw that the longest teaching in the Bible about love is in the context of church relationships and spiritual gifts?
3. If a congregation was very intentional and practical about applying 1Cor 13, what do you think would be the outcomes?
4. Look at v 4-7:
 1. which trait of love is easiest or most natural for you?
 2. which trait is most difficult?
 3. can you give an example of how someone you know displays one of those traits
5. We just went through an election cycle. How do we express this kind of love toward those with opposite political views?

GENERAL QUESTIONS:

1. What new concept did you learn from this week's text?
2. Is there anything in the text that you don't understand?
3. How does this text challenge you to change? Is there anything standing in your way of making that change?