Specific Questions: TEXT: 2Tim 2:1

1. What is the strongest trait of your spiritual life?

2. What is the weakest trait of your spiritual life?

3. Do you know your learing style? (reading, hearing, dialogue, examples, trial & error). How does that style help you grow in grace?

4. We all have 'room for growth' in grace. Is your need for growth the same or different than the need in Refuge as a congregation? How could you contribute to the congregational growth? How can you benefit from the grace-strength of the congregation?

5. Grace, understood biblically, does not result in license or lawlessness (Titus 2:11-12). Why might some live with that faulty notion? How can we as Christians help one another live more aligned with Titus 2:11-12?

6. How has the grace God has shown to you helped you move toward Him?
