Douglas Johnson Corley was born on October 9, 1929 in Sundown, Texas to Douglas and Dorothy Corley. He died on April 23, 2024 in Lubbock, Texas. He was 94 years old.

Doug graduated from Sundown High School in 1948. He entered the United States Army Air Corps to serve in the Korean War and attained the rank of Second Lieutenant. Following the Korean War, he entered the United States Army Reserve where he rose to the rank of Captain. He attended Tarleton State University, a two-year institution at the time, and transferred to Texas Tech University where he graduated with a Degree in Agriculture Ed in 1953.

In 1951, he married Sammie Powers, who preceded him in death in 2020. Doug was a business entrepreneur long before the term was commonly used. He began his full and varied career as a salesman at Featherlite Brick. He was a manufacturer's representative for Conex and several other companies. He began Casters of Lubbock in 1977, owning and operating it successfully until he sold it in 2014. He was a visionary investor, developing property throughout the growing Lubbock area, including the Terra Estates II neighborhood with his good friend and partner A.L. Wilson. A contractor, he built several homes in Lubbock.

Doug was a faithful member of the Second Baptist Church of Lubbock where he and his family joined in the year of the church's founding in 1958, and where he served as a Deacon. He had a particular knack for getting young families involved in the work of the Lord. He served on the Board of Trustees of the South Plains Food Bank for many years. He donated land to the Food Bank, as well as to Habitat for Humanity, and was very involved in the work of the Sick Children's Clinic.

Of deep meaning to Doug was a small community of close friends who dubbed themselves the Mickey Mouse Travel Club, gathering regularly for birthday and holiday celebrations, and other special occasions.

Among Doug's many interests were stock cars which he raced, airplanes which he flew, hot air balloons which he floated, cutting horses which he raised and rode, and the Double Oak Ranch in Desdemona, Texas which he managed.

His family carrying on his legacy include son Steve and wife Becky; daughter Jana and husband Charles; son Mike and wife Frieda; grandchildren Chad, Deidra, Zach (deceased), Eric (deceased), Brent, Cliff, Scott (deceased), Erin, and Chris Anne; and great-grandchildren Meghan (deceased), Devin, Lexie, Josh, John, Alexa, Corley, Riley and Harper, Brooklyn, Clay, Nora, and Simon. How Great Thou Art

1 O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Chorus:

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art

2 When thro' the woods and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze.
[Chorus]

3 When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And lead me home, what joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow with humble adoration,
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art.
[Chorus]
