

SDBC KIDS CANADA SUMMER JOBS INTERN

Do you have a passion for working with kids and families and helping them grow in their faith? If so, we are seeking a dynamic and energetic Kids Intern to join our team at South Delta Baptist Church for the summer of 2025.

SDBC is a missional Christian church in Delta, BC—a suburb of Vancouver. We are committed to worshipping our God, participating in God's mission to preach the gospel, and sharing the love of Jesus with our community by embodying the gospel through radical (biblical) hospitality. In obedience to the bible, we are committed to following Jesus and serving our city, nation, and world by living in authentic community as missionaries of Jesus Christ wherever we are. We invite you to join us on God's amazing mission.

PRIMARY OBJECTIVES

To plan and prepare materials and program content for a community family carnival and for children's day camps. The intern will assist the primary organizer of these events and will need to help plan, recruit, and train volunteers. Both events will consist of recreational activities, games, crafts, curriculum editing, and customization of our theme, as well as some stage crafts and other creative elements. This intern will also be responsible for updating the organization's social media account and designing graphics to fit each of the different events. They will also take inventory of classroom supplies and ensure classrooms are fully stocked each week. The intern will take evaluation of how we incorporate children with special needs into our weekly Sunday programs, as well as work 1-on-1 with these students and make plans to improve how we are currently functioning. This position requires experience with children and an interest and aptitude in childhood education. Experience in administrative work would also be valuable.

DEMONSTRATED QUALITIES & SKILLS

- Ability to minister to different demographics of people (kids, leaders, and parents)
- Ability to engage, teach, inspire, and equip disciples to pursue and follow Christ
- Passion for teaching the Gospel to kids
- Ability to engage the unchurched and churched at the same time through teaching
- Ability to creatively plan and execute dynamic ministry programs, events, initiatives, trips, etc.
- Ability to identify, recruit, develop, and oversee leaders
- Ability to effectively organize, administer, and oversee multiple areas of ministry

- Love for the bible and passion to see others love the bible
- Active, growing, and thriving relationship with Jesus
- Dependable, flexible, and servant-hearted to do any job with joy and passion

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Creatively plan, organize, coordinate, promote, manage, and execute summer events with the help of the Director of SDBC Kids
- Create graphics and promote events through SDBC Kids' social media
- Minister to and shepherd students as they grow deeper in their faith with Jesus
- Foster a ministry culture that supports, connects with, and engages kids and families in our church and beyond
- Take ownership of inviting new people to serve on a regular basis
- Create a culture of excellent volunteer care; committing to thank at least one volunteer on a weekly basis through email, text, phone call, handwritten card, coffee meeting etc.
- Weekly leadership development meetings with the Director of SDBC Kids
- Serve on Sunday mornings as "Sunday Coordinator"

WORK WEEK AND INTERNSHIP DURATION

- 35 hours per week for 9 consecutive weeks, including Sunday Mornings (must be available at least 7 Sundays). To be completed between May 4th and August 31st, 2025 (start date is flexible).

We offer a positive, supportive, and fun work environment. If you are ready to make a difference in the lives of others while using your skills and experience to support our mission, we encourage you to apply for this exciting opportunity.

To apply for this position, please email your resume and cover letter to Kaitlyn Parker, Director of SDBC Kids (kparker@southdelta.org).
