

SDBC YOUTH MINISTRY INTERN

Do you have a passion for working with preteens and youth and helping them grow in their faith? If so, you might be the perfect fit to be our Youth Intern at South Delta Baptist Church for the 2025-26 school year.

SDBC is a missional Christian church in Delta, BC—a suburb of Vancouver. We are committed to worshiping God, participating in God's mission to preach the gospel, and sharing the love of Jesus with our community by embodying the gospel through radical (biblical) hospitality. In obedience to the bible, we are committed to following Jesus and serving our city, nation, and world by living in authentic community as missionaries of Jesus Christ wherever we are. We invite you to join us on God's amazing mission.

PRIMARY OBJECTIVES

To assist the Youth & Young Adults Director with preparing for and executing weekly next-gen programs where students can know Jesus, be known, and cultivate a life-long relationship with Jesus.

To inspire the faith of the next generation through the delivery of biblical content that facilitates open and honest discussion about the Bible, Christian faith, and students' real-world experience.

To nurture a ministry culture of resilient joy and presence to God and each other.

To foster ongoing relationships with students and leaders in the context of youth and church gatherings as well as over coffee or other informal events.

This position requires an interest in and aptitude for working with youth and preteens. Experience in administrative work, team leadership, and public speaking would also be assets.

DEMONSTRATED QUALITIES & SKILLS

- Love for Jesus, which includes an active, growing, and thriving relationship with him
- Love for the bible and passion to see others love the bible
- Ability to minister to and lead different demographics of people (young adults, youth, preteens, leaders, and parents)
- Ability to engage, teach, inspire, and equip disciples to pursue and follow Christ
- Ability to engage the unchurched and churched through the various elements of our program
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively
- Willingness to step outside one's comfort zone to meet new people
- Dependable, flexible, and servant-hearted, willing to do any job with joy and passion
- Interest in growing
