In 1963, St. Clement's Church, under the leadership of Father Sidney Lanier in collaboration with the American Place Theatre, reconfigured its sanctuary into the 161-seat off-Broadway Theatre @ St. Clement's that is known today throughout the theatre community as one of the longest-running off-Broadway houses in New York City. In addition, Mr. Curry's renowned 46th Street Mass was commissioned by Mother Barbara Crafton, former Rector of St. Clement's.
