*PROCESSION

The act of processing as an outward sign of our faith dates to the early Church. We commemorate the Word of God given in Scripture by processing behind a Beadle, who bears the Bible, and a piper. Join us at the Social Center driveway at 9:15 or line the entrance walk and join the procession as it arrives. Please remain standing as you are able until seated by the Pastor.

Beadle: The Word of God for the People of God.

ST. ANNE

*OUR PRAYERS OF ADORATION AND CONFESSION

Rev. Khayla J. Henry

God of mercy, hear our prayer.

You created us to live in hope, but we have so often chosen to dwell in fear.

You crafted for us a spirit of peace, but we have exchanged it for dread.

You redeemed our lives to live in freedom, but we have made new chains to bind us.

Be merciful and patient with our resignations and false assurances.

What greater love is there than to offer one's life?

Let our lives be defined and reborn in love.

God of mercy, hear our prayer. Amen.

*KYRIE

Lord, have mercy up on us.

Christ, have mercy up on us.

Lord, have mercy up on us.

Written for Third Presbyterian Church, Rochester, NY by Peter DuBois

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING

Nehemiah 1:11 – 2:5

O Lord, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give success to your servant today, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man!"

At the time, I was cupbearer to the king.

In the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was served him, I carried the wine and gave it to the king. Now, I had never been sad in his presence before. So the king said to me, "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This can only be sadness of the heart." Then I was very much afraid.

I said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my ancestors' graves, lies waste and its gates have been destroyed by fire?" Then the king said to me, "What do you request?" So I prayed to the God of heaven. Then I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor with you, I ask that you send me to Judah, to the city of my ancestors' graves, so that I may rebuild it."

SCRIPTURE READER: This is the Word of the Lord.

PEOPLE: Thanks be to God.

SECOND SCRIPTURE READING

Luke 21:5-6

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said, 6 "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down."

SCRIPTURE READER: This is the Word of the Lord.

PEOPLE: Thanks be to God.

687 Our God, Our Help in Ages Past

- 5 Time, like an ever rolling stream,
 bears all our years away;
 they fly forgotten, as a dream
 dies at the opening day.
- 6 Our God, our help in ages past,
 our hope for years to come,
 be thou our guard while life shall last,
 and our eternal home.

Many people sing this hymn unaware that it paraphrases Psalm 90, partly because this text speaks so immediately to the human condition. Since the middle of the 19th century, it has usually been joined to this tune named for the London parish where the composer was organist.
