Scripture Reading

Hosea 11:1-9

Mary Jane Dillard

NIV

¹¹ “When Israel was a child, I loved him,
and out of Egypt I called my son.

² But the more they were called,
the more they went away from me.

They sacrificed to the Baals
and they burned incense to images.

³ It was I who taught Ephraim to walk,
taking them by the arms;

but they did not realize

it was I who healed them.

⁴ I led them with cords of human kindness,
with ties of love.

To them I was like one who lifts

a little child to the cheek,

and I bent down to feed them.

⁵ “Will they not return to Egypt and will not Assyria rule over them because they refuse to repent?

⁶ A sword will flash in their cities;

it will devour their false prophets
and put an end to their plans.

⁷ My people are determined to turn from me.

Even though they call me God Most High,

I will by no means exalt them.

⁸ “How can I give you up, Ephraim?

How can I hand you over, Israel?

How can I treat you like Admah?

How can I make you like Zeboyim?

My heart is changed within me;

all my compassion is aroused.

⁹ I will not carry out my fierce anger,
nor will I devastate Ephraim again.

For I am God, and not a man—
the Holy One among you.

I will not come against their cities.

Prayer

Prayer of Petition

Congregation

(inspired by Hosea 11: 1-7)

Lord God,
we sometimes wonder why our lives take the paths they do.
We seem to find ourselves in all sorts of situations we had never envisioned,
and we wonder what You are doing with us.

Stay close to us, we pray,
and give us the faith to trust You, for whatever happens.
Then, in Your providence,
show us more of Your glory and grace,
so that we may be encouraged, and praise You forever.
Amen.
