COLUMBARIUM DEDICATION

Gathering & Call to Worship

Pastor:
"Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. We gather today in this sacred space to dedicate our new columbarium. This is a place of rest, a place of memory, and a place of hope. Here, the earthly remains of our loved ones will be cradled in the peace of God, awaiting the resurrection.

Scripture Readings

Old Testament – Psalm 84:1-3, 9-12

How lovely is your dwelling place, O Lord of hosts! My soul longs, yes faints for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God. Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young at your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are those who dwell in your house, ever singing your praise!

For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the homes of the wicked. For the Lord God is a sun and shield, the Lord gives us grace and glory. No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly. O Lord of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in you!

New Testament – John 14:1-3

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

Responsive Reading for Dedication

Dear brothers and sisters, now that the good work of preparing this columbarium and patio has been completed, let us dedicate it and rejoice in its use.

Pastor: We dedicate Brookwood's columbarium to the glory of God, as a sacred repository for the earthly remains of those who sleep in Jesus.

People: We dedicate this columbarium in faith and hope.

Pastor: We dedicate the memorial wall in loving memory of those who have finished their course and whose memory we will always cherish.

People: We dedicate this wall in gratitude.

Pastor: We dedicate this space as a place of comfort for those who mourn, a sanctuary for quiet prayer, and a visible sign of our belief in the communion of saints.

People: We dedicate this space in love and remembrance.

Pastor: We dedicate this space in the certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

People: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Pastor: "O God, bless this columbarium. May it be a holy resting place for your servants. Send your peace upon all who visit here to remember their loved ones. Wrap them in your comfort and fill them with the hope of your heavenly kingdom."

Moment of Silence

The Lord's Prayer

"Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen."

Hymn When We All Get to Heaven

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus, Sing His mercy and His grace: In the mansions bright and blessed, He'll prepare for us a place. When we all get to heaven, What a day of rejoicing that will be! When we all see Jesus, We'll sing and shout the victory.

Onward to the prize before us! Soon His beauty we'll behold; Soon the pearly gates will open; We shall see the streets of gold. When we all get to heaven, What a day of rejoicing that will be! When we all see Jesus, We'll sing and shout the victory.

Benediction

"May God give to you and to all those whom you love his comfort and his peace, his light and his joy in this world and the next: and may the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, rest upon you.

Go in the peace of the Risen Christ.
All: In the name of Christ, Amen.
