Call to Worship

We are here
to worship a remarkable God.
The love of God welcomes us,
the grace of Christ awaits us,
the joy of the Spirit enfolds us.

Don't come as slaves, come as the truly free.
Don't come as petitioners, come as those who are already heard.
Don't come as interlopers, come as invited guests.
Don't come as the outsiders, come as much-wanted children.
The love of God emboldens us.
The grace of Christ redeems us.
The joy of the Spirit uplifts us.

Come as the joyful, come as the eager, come as the thankful,
come as the recipients of amazing grace.
The love of God overflows our hearts,
The grace of Christ liberates our spirits,
The joy of the Spirit sings in our minds.

Scripture Reading

Isaiah 58:3-9a

Stephen Hudgens

NIV

3 'Why have we fasted,' they say,
 'and you have not seen it?
Why have we humbled ourselves,
 and you have not noticed?'
"Yet on the day of your fasting, you do as you please
 and exploit all your workers.
4 Your fasting ends in quarreling and strife,
 and in striking each other with wicked
fists.
You cannot fast as you do today
 and expect your voice to be heard on high.
5 Is this the kind of fast I have chosen,
 only a day for people to
humble themselves?
Is it only for bowing one's head like a reed
 and for lying in sackcloth and ashes?
Is that what you call a fast,
 a day acceptable to the Lord?
6 "Is not this the kind of fasting I have chosen:

to loose the chains of injustice
 and untie the cords of the yoke,
to set the oppressed free
 and break every yoke?
7 Is it not to share your food with the hungry
 and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—
when you see the naked, to clothe them,
 and not to turn away from your own flesh
and blood?
8 Then your light will break forth like the
dawn,
 and your healing will quickly appear;
then your righteousness will go before you,
 and the glory of the Lord will be your rear
guard.
9 Then you will call, and the Lord will
answer;
 you will cry for help, and he will say: Here
am I.
