A SEASON TO REMEMBER “A SAVIOR TO REJOICE”

December invites us to slow down and look up. As the year closes and the days grow shorter, Advent gives us space to remember and rejoice. We are not left to wonder in the dark—a Light has come. The birth of Christ is not just a moment in history, it is the fulfillment of God’s redemptive promise, bringing with it four powerful gifts that still speak to our hearts today: hope, peace, joy, and love.

- Peace reminds us that Christ calms the chaos. (Isaiah 9:6)
- Joy reminds us that salvation has come. True joy is not found in gifts or gatherings, but in the presence of Jesus, our Redeemer. (John 15:11)
- Love reminds us that God did not leave us alone. He sent His Son—not because we earned it, but because His love is everlasting. (1 John 4:9–10)

This Advent season, don’t let the hurry of the holidays crowd out the hope of the gospel. Take time to reflect on the meaning of the manger: God came near. And because He came, we can walk into the future full of grace, guided by truth, and grounded in eternal love.

Scripture Focus

Luke 2:10–11

“Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.”

The Path to Salvation

God created us to have a personal relationship with Him, a relationship that was broken by sin. Yet, everyone can restore this relationship through the gift of salvation. 1 John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins [to God], he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness." You can get started with this prayer:

"Dear Lord Jesus, I know that I am a sinner, and I ask for your forgiveness. I believe You died for my sins and rose from the dead. I commit my life to You as my Lord and Savior and invite You into my heart. This I pray in your Holy name. Amen."

John 3:16
