

“Go and search diligently for the child;
and when you have found him,
bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.”

When they had heard the king,
they set out, and there, ahead of them,
went the star that they had seen at its rising,
until it stopped over the place where the child was.
When they saw that the star had stopped,
they were overwhelmed with joy.

I HEAR THE SWEET, THOUGH FAR OFF HYMN THAT HAILS THE NEW CREATION

Prelude

Yendor Knarhcs

Variations on GREENSLEEVES
Sharon Sanders, organ; Stephanie Hall, flute

Call to Worship

Rick Finklea (8:45)
Scott Gunter (11:15)

In the beginning was the Word, before calendars, before clocks, before years were named.

The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The Word speaks light into darkness, life into chaos, hope where we had grown tired.

We come to worship the God who is always creating.

Let us worship the One who makes all things new.

Psalm 147:12-14, 20 (Pew Bible page 571 – OT)

Prayer of Confession

John Kupar

God of light and life, we confess that we resist being made new. We cling to old ways of thinking, old resentments, old fears that shape how we see one another and the world. We have trusted our own wisdom more than yours. We have settled for survival instead of transformation. We have chosen comfort when you call us toward courage. Forgive us. Speak your Word into us again. Create in us hearts open to your renewing work, and lives that reflect your light. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

The Depth of God's Love
Diane Brewer, Libby Greer Cunningham, Martha Greer Johnson

The depth of God's love reaches down; to where you are until you're found. A quiet word or none at all; pursues the heart behind the wall; and to those who wait with darkness all around; the depth of God's love reaches down. And though it feels as if; the darkness will stay; we want to believe the light will come; but how do we even pray? In the silence of the night; In the stillness of this place; darkness flies, all is light; with the dawn of redeeming grace. For the depth of God's love reaches down; to where we are until we're found; God's quiet Word has come to all; to join with us, break down our walls; So to those who wait with darkness all around; the depth of God's love reaches down.

† For those who are able, we invite you to stand.

Rustic Serenade to the Madonna

H. Berlioz

*In worship at Highland, we aim to speak and sing a theology that reflects an expansive and inclusive God. As we begin the Lord's Prayer today, we will use the words "Our Creator, Our Mother, Our Father..." to offer a fuller image of who God is. Within the prayer, some of us use the word "kingdom" and others prefer the word "kin-dom" to refer to the beloved community of God. We invite you to join us in using your own creative and intentional language as you pray, knowing that no single word will ever capture the essence of who God is.

Today in Worship

Phrases from today's hymn, How Can I Keep from Singing, will guide us toward images that embody segments of our worship service — praise, confession, proclamation, and response.

Our thanks to Sharon Sanders and Stephanie Hall for their musical leadership today in worship.

Listening Assist Devices are available. Please see our sound technician or an usher for assistance. Large print hymn sheets are also available upon request for visually impaired persons. An usher can provide a copy for you.

Worship care is available for infants, toddlers and preschoolers during worship. Our greeters are available to help you navigate our building. A Worship Cart with activities to engage children in the pew is located in the Commons.
