An Update from the Pastor Search Committee

The pastor search committee is pleased to announce that we have narrowed the field of candidates down to two finalists. We are having day-long in-person interviews with each candidate this month. We are so very grateful for the prayers and support of the congregation and ask that you continue those prayers for the candidates and the search committee.

A Note from Highland's Immigrant Support Team

Thanks to all of you who contributed holiday gifts of needed supplies to La Casita and the Solidarity Project in November and December! Both organizations were hugely thankful for your generosity.

As immigrant detention and deportation continues to rise, and now with the death of an immigrant supporter, Renee Macklin Good, at the hands of an ICE officer, our immigrant population needs even more solid support. We on HBC's Immigrant Support team join with others across the nation who condemn the inhuman tactics being used by many ICE officers, including Jonathan Ross, the officer who shot and killed Ms. Good, and we mourn her tragic death.

Our concern continues to focus on the immigrants in Louisville. What can we do? Organizations like Kentucky Refugee Ministries and La Casita can always use financial support, and both of these list on their websites specific items their clients can use.

For those of you who want to be more involved, consider joining the Community Defense Network of LSURJ (Louisville Showing Up for Racial Justice) as some HBC members already have done. Members of the network are trained to respond to calls for accompaniment, serve as eyes and ears at vulnerable gatherings, meet-ups, and centers that accompany directly impacted communities, show up at court hearings, and more. The next training is Wednesday, February 18, 6:00 to 8:00 pm. Please contact one of us if you are interested. (The site will be sent to those who register a little later.)

You may also want to attend the Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Justice (ICIJ) gathering on January 20. Find more information about that event below.

A community panel hosted by the Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Justice, as we consider what has unfolded, how our community has responded, and where we go from here.

Registration is requested here.

Last year, the Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Justice (ICIJ) gathered the community to reflect on what we might expect from the newly inaugurated Trump administration. Now—one year in—we return to the conversation with the experience of a year behind us.

Please join us for One Year In, a community panel hosted by the Interfaith Coalition for Immigrant Justice, as we consider what has unfolded, how our community has responded, and where we go from here. Six panelists will reflect on the impact of the past year on immigrant communities in Metro Louisville, guided by three key questions:

- What has the impact been?
- How have we responded?
- How do we move forward?
