

Advent Beyond Imagination

The song of Mary is the oldest Advent hymn.
It is at once the most passionate, the wildest,
one might even say the most revolutionary
Advent hymn ever sung.

Jesus Christ has come to earth and for us shall come again.*

Light the candle of God's joy, light the light of shepherd's coming, light the candle of God's joy, light the light that shows the way.

For God has done great things for us. Holy is the name of the Lord!

Prayer of Confession

Lauren Jones Mayfield

We confess, O God, our impatience with Advent waiting. In our culture of same-day mail deliveries we expect instant gratification. We grow weary, and joy takes practice. We are out of practice with both waiting and joy. Forgive us. Restore us; for indeed, you do great things for us. O come, O come, Emmanuel. Amen.

† For those who are able, we invite you to stand.

Assurance of Forgiveness

Fecit potentiam in brachio suo, dispersit superbos mente cordis sui. God has shown a strong arm and has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.

Today in Worship

Highland's deacons (wearing identification name tags) are available at various locations for prayer, questions or information. Deacons are lay ministers of the church who have been called to a ministry of service.

Phrases from today's musical offering, Mary's Magnificat, will guide us toward images that embody segments of our worship service—praise, confession, proclamation and response.

We express gratitude to our soloists for today: Ashley Cissell and Emily Stewart (soprano), Dominique Cooper (alto), Kyle Melton, (tenor) and Gregory Rahming (bass). Many thanks also to our instrumentalists: Hannah Inglehart (flute 1), Lynne-Grace Wooden (flute 2), Lillian Reed (oboe 1), Adi Pandey (oboe 2), Earl Garr (trumpet 1), Neil Barton (trumpet 2), Colt Howell (trumpet 3), Jane Halliday (violin 1), Ed Bridge (violin 1), Mia Rose-Lozado (violin 2), Joseph Levinson (violin 2), Virginia Phelps (viola), Mary Meyers (viola), Brendan Stock (cello), Eli Raines (bass), and Bruce Maples (timpani).

Notes and News for the Community of Faith

• Orchestra Christmas Concert Tonight

Highland's orchestra will present "A Christmas Christ-Mass Concert" at 6:00 PM in the sanctuary. The concert features songs and arrangements of the season, and we will be joined on the last number by the Highland Handbell Choir. It promises to be a fun and enjoyable concert, so come join us!

- Financial Update: As of December 11, our 2023 expenses exceed our income by $390,000. While that number might be overwhelming to read, we are also bold enough to imagine that the goal of meeting our ministry expenses is entirely within reach! You are welcome to give in person during worship today or in any of our services on Sunday, December 24. You may also give online at <https://hbclouisville.org/giving-1/> or by contacting our financial secretary, Kathleen Gordon, at kathleen@hbclouisville.org or at 502-451-3735. If you would like to hand-deliver a gift to the church office, we will be open December 27-29 from 9:00 AM—3:00 PM. As a reminder, any gifts for the 2023 budget year must be received or postmarked by December 31. Thank you for all the ways you give generously to Highland as we join in the work of God, creating a world where justice and Love are abundant!

• Longest Night Service on December 21 at 6:00 PM

Christmas is often characterized as the most wonderful time of the year, but it is often anything but this, especially for those who are grieving at the holidays. Whether you are reflecting on the loss of a beloved family member or friend, a job, a relationship, a life transition - all are welcome to this quiet and reflective worship service on the longest night of the year.
