

HIGHLAND BAPTIST CHURCH
FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY
FEBRUARY 1, 2026
8:45 AND 11:15 A.M.

CHRISTIAN PEOPLE, SING TOGETHER,
ALL UNITED IN ONE VOICE

Prelude

William B. Cooper

Bread of Heaven

Call to Worship

Joey Eubank (8:45)
Bob Cunningham (11:15)

Come and worship God, for Christ is calling.

We belong to Christ alone.

We come with questions, with hope, with weariness, with joy, and with the shifting ground of change beneath our feet.

Still, Christ is our sure foundation.

We are not held together by one pastor, or one era, or one plan for the future.

We are held together by grace.

Jesus says, "Follow me," and calls us into the work of good news.

We will follow, and we will join God's mission in the world.

Let us worship God.

BRIDEGROOM

Like the Murmur of the Dove's Song

Prayer of Confession

John Kubar

Jesus, walking Christ, you pass by our lives and still you call, "Follow me," yet we confess how often we stay where we are, mending nets of resentment, tightening knots of fear, clinging to what feels familiar, and choosing our own certainty over your way of love. (SILENCE) We confess the ways we become scattered, divided in heart, quick to quarrel, slow to listen, hesitant to trust, tempted to make the church about ourselves, instead of about your mission. (SILENCE) Forgive us when we make the church about personalities or power, when we treat unity like sameness, and when we confuse peace with avoiding hard love. (SILENCE) Send your Spirit like the murmur of a dove, gentle and strong, to gather us again, as grain once scattered on the hillsides is made one bread, knit us together in the same purpose, and lead us into the joy and courage of following you. Amen.

The Bodies Glorious, Seven Brief Visions of the Life of the Resurrected

VI. "Joy and Clarity of the Bodies Glorious"

† For those who are able, we invite you to stand.

*In worship at Highland, we aim to speak and sing a theology that reflects an expansive and inclusive God. As we begin the Lord's Prayer today, we will use the words "Our Creator, Our Mother, Our Father..." to offer a fuller image of who God is. Within the prayer, some of us use the word "kingdom" and others prefer the word "kin-dom" to refer to the beloved community of God. We invite you to join us in using your own creative and intentional language as you pray, knowing that no single word will ever capture the essence of who God is.

Today in Worship

Phrases from today's hymn, Christian People, Sing Together, will guide us toward images that embody segments of our worship service — praise, confession, proclamation, and response.

The flowers on the chancel today are given by David Hartley in loving memory of his husband, Jerry Burske.

One way Highland celebrates Black History Month is by hearing the voices of black musicians in our worship. Today we highlight William Cooper, who was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Philadelphia Musical Academy and later studied at the Union Theological Seminary School of Sacred Music. He was an educator as well as a church musician. Cooper composed more than 300 works including cantatas, motets, and oratorios, earning him the 'Bishop's Cross' for extraordinary ministry of music for the enrichment of liturgy.

Listening Assist Devices are available. Please see our sound technician or an usher for assistance. Large print hymn sheets are also available upon request for visually impaired persons. An usher can provide a copy for you.

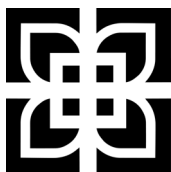

Worship care is available for infants, toddlers and preschoolers during worship. Our greeters are available to help you navigate our building. A Worship Cart with activities to engage children in the pew is located in the Commons.

Nearly 65% of people at Highland use online giving to make financial gifts to the church. We invite you to be one of them! Scan the first QR code in the section below to be directed to our online giving page.
