Covenant Update

December 6, 2024

Christmas Cards for Missionaries

Please stop by the table in the narthex this Sunday, December 8, to pick up one or more pre-addressed, stamped Christmas cards to send to our missionaries. Many of our missionaries have expressed encouragement from this yearly reminder that we are thinking of them and praying for their ministry in the Lord.

Congregation Connection

Young Adult Fellowship White Elephant Gift Exchange

The young adult Christmas party and white elephant gift exchange will be held at Byron and Rebecca Childs' house on December 14 at 5:00 p.m. Please bring a snack or hors d'oeuvre to share, and if you'd like to participate in the white elephant gift exchange, please bring a wrapped gift (maximum $25).

Kings in Judaea Radio Drama

For those of you who missed Covenant's performance of Dorothy Sayers' radio play Kings in Judaea last February, we're happy to announce that we will be bringing that story to life again this epiphany season. Mark your calendars for Sunday, January 5 at 4:30 p.m. with refreshments and fellowship to follow. We have already started working on the cast, but if any other adults or high schoolers would like to participate, please see Sharon Muhlfeld.

Overflow Parking

Willing and able volunteers are invited to consider parking in the upper lot and along Covenant Lane (the flat portion perpendicular to the church) on Sunday mornings. Leaving free spaces in the main parking lot allows us to better welcome visitors this Advent season, some of whom may never have heard the good news of Jesus Christ.

This Sunday Pastor Muhlfeld will preach from 2 Samuel 3:22-39 and his sermon title is The Prince of Peace. He writes, "Joab shattered the fragile peace between Israel and Judah through a bitter mix of jealousy and revenge. David mended the peace, though imperfectly due to the responsibility he avoided. Only Jesus, David's greater son and Lord, is the Prince of Peace who can not only reconcile us to one another, but to the holy God whom we have offended by making peace through His blood shed on the cross."
