This Sunday Pastor Rohrman will preach from Matthew 12:15–21 and his sermon title is The Justice of God's Servant. He writes, "All human beings are born with their own sense of justice (what is right and wrong, good and bad), who can enforce it, and how. But this passage reminds us that God defines what justice is, and that only his servant-Son Jesus can ultimately accomplish it. And he often does so in ways that surprise us or conflict with our expectations, which we need to repent of, as we grow in trust and submission to him."
