Discussion Questions

1. What's the thing that most frequently gets in the way of you coming to Ground Zero?
2. How can we encourage each other to be here every week?
3. We talked about "showing up relationally", what are some examples of how we can be engaged in our small group time beyond just sitting there?
4. If this small group is going to be a place that we all want to be a part of every week, what are some of the words that we would want to describe what this group is like?
5. What are some ways we could "show up spiritually" and be prepared for what God could do in us at Ground Zero?

Now what:

What is one practical way that you are going to commit to "showing up" this year at Ground Zero?
