What's your life like:

Would you rather have a rewind button or a pause button for your life?

What are we talking about this week:

Main Point of Message

- This week, we're talking about how to make God-honoring decisions about sex. Middle school is a great time to decide to follow God's plan for sex, which means saving it for marriage. Protecting what we see and consume also helps us stay on the right path.

Bible Verses

- 1 Corinthians 6:18-2
- Genesis 2:24-25
- Isaiah 1:18
- Luke 11:34
- Philippians 4:8

Discussion Questions

1. What does it mean to honor God with your body? How can you start doing that now?
2. Why do you think God designed sex to be within a lifelong marriage commitment?
3. How does the "super glue" illustration help explain the effects of sexual relationships outside of marriage?
4. How do the things we watch and see influence our thoughts and decisions?
5. What are some ways you can apply the "pure and praiseworthy" test to your media choices?
6. If someone has already made choices that don't align with God's plan, what does the Bible say about grace and forgiveness?

Now what:

Decide today to honor God with your body by following his plan for sex.

What boundaries do you need to set for what you watch and consume, using the "pure and praiseworthy" test?

Remember, talk to a trusted adult, pastor, or mentor if you are struggling or need guidance!

Pray for strength and wisdom to make choices that honor God.
