Discussion Questions

1. Who's someone you've looked up to before? What was it about them that made you want to be like them?
2. When you think about "looking like Jesus" on the inside, what do you think that means? What would it look like in your everyday life?
3. Which fruit of the Spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control) do you think is the hardest for you to show right now? Why?
4. Why do you think loving others is the main way people can tell we follow Jesus? What makes that kind of love stand out?

Now what:

- What's one small way this week that you could love others like Jesus — at school, at home, or with your friends?
