

Small Group Discussion

The Week of: May 6, 2026

What's your life like:

- Share a hot take! What's something that's overrated?

What are we talking about this week:

Main Point of Message

- Being different is worth it because normal is overrated and because being different makes a difference.

Bible Verses

- Romans 12:2

Discussion Questions

1. Has following Jesus ever felt difficult for you? Why?
2. What do you think Paul means by "do not conform to the pattern of this world"?
3. What are some "normal" things in middle school that may not honor God?
4. How does following Jesus lead to a transformed life?
5. Why do you think transformation starts in the mind?
6. How can being different actually help other people?
7. Do you know someone that lives boldly for Jesus? What do you notice about them?

Now what:

What's one area where Jesus may be asking you to be different right now?

Don't forget! There's still time to submit your summer videos to be featured at Summerfest!

