

The Week of:

Oct. 2, 2024

What's your life like:

What's your favorite thing to do during fall and why?

What are we talking about this week:

Main Point of Message:

- This week we are starting a new series titled "How God Sees Me" that's all about learning to see ourselves the way God sees us. Tonight's message specifically is on how God sees us as his child.

Bible Verses

- Ephesians 1:4-6, Galatians 3:26-28

Discussion Questions

1. How many times do you look in a mirror on an average day?
2. How does looking to the wrong things for self-image distort how we see ourselves?
3. What does it mean to you that through faith in Jesus you can be a member of God's family?
4. What do you tend to find your identity in besides God?
5. How would it change how you see yourself to only accept the label: child of God?

Now what:

- How can you remind yourself of how God sees you this week?
