

The Week of:

Nov. 20, 2024

What's your life like:

What's one high and one low from this week?

What are we talking about this week:

Main Point of Message:

- This week we are finishing our series called "The Next Right Thing" that is all about how to make Godly and wise decisions about important things. Tonight we are focusing on the importance of choosing the right friends.

Bible Verses

- Mark 2:1-5,11-12

Discussion Questions

1. What are some ways you've noticed your friends have rubbed off on you?
2. Think about your closest friends right now- if you were to follow them would you arrive at Jesus, or end up further away from him?
3. Have you ever experienced friends who carried you when you really needed it?
4. What does it look like for friends to dig through the dirt for each other?
5. Why is so important to choose the right friends?

Now what:

- This week take to time to ask yourself not only do you have the right friends, but are you the right kind of friend to others?
