Discussion Questions

1. Do you know any know-it-alls? Are any of you a know-it-all at times?
2. In what ways is God's knowledge different than ours?
3. Why do you think it's a good thing that God is all-knowing?
4. What comfort does it give you that God knows everything about you?
5. What does it mean that God can know us in a way that no one else can?

Now what:

- How can you remind yourself each day this week that because God is all-knowing, he knows you?
