RADICALLY HONEST: A LOOK IN THE MIRROR

matthew 7:1-6

“Judge not, that you be not judged. ²For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.

Matthew 7:1–2 (NKJV)

1. For the disciple of Jesus, radical honesty begins with the awareness of a fatal tendency to _____ the faults of others and _____ the gravity of our own _____. (vv. 1, 2; Gen. 3:12–13)
2. So Jesus gives us a direct command: _____ . (vv. 1, 2)
3. With the picture of a speck of _____ and a _____ Jesus commands that we first discern _____ before we point to a _____ we perceive in _____ else. (vv. 3–4; Jam 4:11–12)
4. Discerning _____ first is _____ to our part in the life restoring _____ of _____. (v. 5–6; 2 Pet 2:22)
5. A Radically _____ look in the _____ requires that we ask:
 - a) What _____ is residing in _____ eye? (Mt 5:20)
 - b) Is there a spirit of self-righteousness, _____, a desire for retaliation, or _____ in my heart? (v. 5; Mt 6:14, 15)
 - c) Do my _____ and actions serve to _____ or winsomely _____ the _____ and message of _____? (v. 6; Rom 14:4, 10–13)

Therefore let us not judge one another anymore, but rather resolve this, not to put a stumbling block or a cause to fall in our brother’s way. Romans 14:13 (NKJV)
