

God With Us

... as we Welcome

Luke 1:26-38; Matthew 1:18-23

December 8th

"For with God nothing will be impossible." Then Mary said, "Behold the maidservant of the Lord! Let it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

Lu. 1:37-38 (NKJV)

1. Since the beginning, God is the _____ of _____!
(Ge. 1:31, 2:15)
2. Those who walk justly with God, _____ with God. (Mt. 1:19-20; Lu. 1:30)
3. In order for Mary and Joseph to _____ "God with us," they had to be _____ on God's plans and its disruptions.
(Mt. 1:20, Lu. 1:34)
4. As one welcomes "God with us," _____, the first wage of _____ is boldly confronted and rebuked. (Ge. 3:10; Mt. 1:20; Lu. 1:30)
5. The _____ impossible with God remains _____ for God. (Lu. 1:37)
6. In faith, submission and obedience point to the God who is _____ with _____ TODAY! (Mt. 1:24; Lu. 1:38)
7. In this Christmas season, what one thing God is asking me to:
 - a. _____?
 - b. _____?

"Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which is translated, "God with us." Mt. 1:23 (NKJV)