Dear Linworth Baptist Church,

Hallelujah – He is risen indeed!! But we also remember the dear price He paid for our sin. Thank you, Jesus!!

This Sunday 10 families will host about 30 students for an Easter meal. Please pray for Spirit lead conversations around the tables; that each student would be drawn to Jesus. Ask for on-going relationships to develop.

Updates:

Manny is walking quite well without a cane. We are in frequent contact through texting. It's a joy to know he is growing deeper in Jesus. Renovation, on Margarita's home is almost finished.

The Lord continues to expand our influence among the almost 100 Afghans here. We continue to pray for a spiritual breakthrough – that a Jesus community of Afghans would become a reality. Jesus said, "I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Mt. 16.18

My insomnia continues to be a big challenge. My strength is quite limited these days. Please continue to pray for a breakthrough.

Your prayers are life-giving – Thanks!

Phil and Ruth Ann

I love this quote attributed to Alfred Flemington.

How he ruthlessly perfects

whom he royally elects!

How he hammers him and hurts him,

and with mighty blows converts him into trial shapes of clay, which only God understands,

while his tortured heart is crying

and he lifts beseeching hands.

How He bends, but never breaks

when his good he undertakes;

how He uses whom He chooses,

and with every purpose fuses him,

by every act induces him

to try His splendor out —

God knows what He's about.
