A NOTE FROM PASTOR ERIC

We are a fast and efficient society, but let's be honest—we're not great at relationships. We wear ear buds when we travel and exercise. We communicate by email and texting. We work remotely. Our front porch has been moved to the backyard with a privacy fence to separate us from our neighbors. And most of our friends on social media are people we rarely see.

The truth is we are living in the most connected society in history, but when it comes to relationships, many of us are disconnected.

At Northview, we want to experience relationships as God intended. We don't just need others; we're created for one another. This means relationships aren't just a nice add-on to the Christian life; they are essential to our soul.

Like the early church in the book of Acts, we want to be the kind of people who are devoted to one another (Acts 2:42–47). We want deep, life-giving relationships as God calls us out of our comfort zones and challenges us to step into the lives of one another.

Deep in our soul, we are created for community. This means no more settling for superficial relationships where everything is always fine.

Sound too good to be true? The goal of this study is to help you take the next step to experience meaningful relationships where God is working for His glory, your growth and the good of others.

Your journey for biblical community starts here and I'm so excited to see what God will do in you and through you this year. Get ready to dive in and experience something new—maybe even life changing. Welcome to the small group ministry at Northview.

Together!

Eric Carlson

WHY SERMON-BASED SMALL GROUPS?

To Engage God's Word

When we study God's Word as a small group, we can challenge, deepen and strengthen the faith of one another as we press the truth of Scripture into our everyday lives. While there are many books, resources and studies available; ultimately, God's Word is what helps us grow in our faith and become more like Christ.

This is why we want to gather around the Bible and dig deeper into Scripture. We don't want to base our life on man's wisdom or the experience of others. We want to know what God says. This is where we see God's promises are real. His wisdom is beyond this world. And His Word has the power to transform lives. There's no replacement for the Bible: Scripture first, Scripture most.

To Enter the Sermon Differently

Instead of a top-down approach where the study is driven by the sermon or a list of predetermined questions, we want to flip the focus and encourage everyone to be in their Bible before Sunday.

When we are in God's Word before Sunday morning, we come to church anticipating the sermon. This creates an active learning environment and changes the way we listen to the sermon. Rather than introducing the passage for the first time, the sermon will clarify and reinforce the meaning of the text as it moves from observation to interpretation. As we listen to the sermon and take notes, we are less likely to tune out because we know that we will be discussing the same topic with our group later that day or sometime throughout that week and want to grasp what it means.

More than rehashing the main points of the sermon, critiquing the message, nodding our heads in agreement or working through a list of questions 1, 2, 3, etc... a sermon-based study enables everyone to dive into God's Word and explore the passage on our own. Over time this simple practice will raise curiosity, increase ownership and help group members be ready to participate with their small group.

To Emphasize Application

Let's be honest, it's easy to read the Bible or hear a sermon and forget it by breakfast the next day. But sermon-based studies keep the passage in front of us. Something changes when we go from hearing and reading Scripture to discussing it with a small group. This shifts participation from rows to circles where each person has the opportunity to ask questions, discuss what they are learning and share how these truths apply to their life.

Rather than hearing a sermon and moving on, sermon-based studies build in the necessary time for life change to occur as the Holy Spirit encourages, convicts and helps us apply God's Word. Over the course of one week, sermon-based studies are designed to engage the same topic three times as we move from observation on our own to interpretation during the sermon and application as a group.

Sitting in the same topic for a week and engaging with a passage in three different ways not only increases familiarity, but it also encourages people to think deeply about the message and meaning. Scripture is meant to be obeyed, not just listened to, read, studied or discussed. When we take time to reflect on what God says and ask, "What does this look like in my life?" it becomes the starting point for change to occur as we become doers of the word, not hearers only.

To Strengthen Group Discussion

While the insights of a new believer versus a mature believer might vary, both are necessary in group discussion. As new believers often bring a unique perspective, their questions and takeaways can be refreshing to the rest of the group. Likewise, mature believers can provide deeper insights that enable new believers to grasp how the passage relates to the Bible as a whole.

Sermon-based studies provide the opportunity for everyone to interact with the same message. The sermon brings cohesion to small groups as it builds upon important themes from week to week. As the sermon lays out what the passage means, this prevents the group from slipping into "This is what the passage means to me..." which can be wrong, contradictory or worse, heresy.

HOW DOES THIS STUDY WORK?

Whether you've studied the Bible for years or are newer in your faith, this study is designed to help you read, understand and apply God's Word. The format of this study guide is intended to be simple and accessible. This study examines each passage from three angles:

PERSONAL STUDY: What does this passage say?

The first part of this study is to read the weekly passage for yourself. Our desire is for you to study the verses on your own before hearing the sermon on Sunday. Read carefully and look for details. Use this study guide to write down your thoughts and answer the weekly questions. As you observe the passage, this provides familiarity and leads to curiosity as you emerge with questions about the text. Your personal study isn't intended to take a long time. This study guide is a tool to change how you come to church and listen to the sermon.

SUNDAY SERMON: What does this passage mean?

The second part of this study is based on the sermon. Now that you have spent time observing the passage by yourself, the sermon is intended to teach the meaning of the text and call you to respond. Rather than introducing the passage for the first time, the sermon will clarify the author's intent and move your personal study from observation to interpretation. As the sermon answers your questions this will make the passage more accessible and applicable. Working through the same passage in different ways, as readers and listeners, allows you to engage God's Word in deeper levels. If you miss the sermon, we encourage you to listen to it or watch it online prior to attending your small group. Use the sermon notes page in this study guide to write down questions and notes to share with your group.

SMALL GROUP: How does this passage impact us?

The final part of this study will bring together your personal study and the sermon as you discuss and apply Scripture with your group. During this discussion, your group will summarize the main points of the passage, answer questions and identify ways to respond to and apply the text. The goal of small group isn't to rehash the sermon but to work together to press the truth of God's Word into our lives. We don't want to be hearers of the Word only, we want to be doers of the Word and have Scripture shape how we live.

THE ONE ANOTHER'S OF SCRIPTURE

Did you know the phrase "one another" is mentioned almost 60 times in the New Testament? Whenever this phrase appears, the biblical author is trying to describe what community should look like among believers. According to the Bible, the assumption is Christians will live in community and share their lives together.

Community is more than red punch and cookies. It's more than what happens after the service when people stand around in conversation. And it's more than watching the Colts game with your small group. In some churches, the word community has been hijacked to describe anything Christians do as long as they are with other Christians.

But this isn't what the Bible is talking about when it lays out a vision for deep, life-giving relationships. Biblical community is based on active participation in a common interest. It's a commitment to others. This is the glue that held the early church together as they devoted themselves to one another and practiced mutual ministry.

Some of the deepest joys in life flow from biblical community, yet too many are settling for less and missing out. It's time we change this.

With nearly eight billion people on this plant, we believe God has placed you here for a reason. This is not an accident or coincidence. God has brought specific people across your path for a purpose. Aren't you a little bit curious to know why God has placed you here and surrounded you with these specific people?

As you enter the one another's of Scripture, your group is a natural place to cultivate biblical community and practice mutual ministry. Lean into these relationships. Have the courage to step out of your comfort zone and be ready to participate in the lives of your group. Get ready to take your small group to the next level as you pursue deep, life-giving relationships rooted in Christ.

Through this study, our goal is that you will find a renewed passion for what it looks like to be the church and how to relate to others. Let's reclaim what it means to experience biblical community in its richest and purest form.

Commands not Suggestions

Before we dive into the one another's, it's important to know these verses aren't suggestions or recommendations. These are commands. This how we're called to interact and relate to others in the church.

At Northview, we want the one another's of Scripture to shape our relationships and define the way that we are a family, body and team. Imagine what would happen if everyone was committed to a common goal and actively participated in the life of one another.

The One Another's of Scripture

don't lie love encourage accept confess to greet be humble instruct forgive offer hospitality have the mind of Christ don't provoke live in peace be sympathetic bear in love be devoted have compassion be patient agree with be gentle be like minded admonish don't pay back wrong spur on to love be kind have equal concern spur on to good deeds don't grumble live in harmony do good pray for honor don't slander serve don't judge sing songs don't deprive build up

It's time to reclaim what it means to be the church and live in biblical community. This involves a level of authenticity that the world has no idea how to attain. Once you experience deep, lifegiving relationships and grow in mutual ministry, there's no going back to shallow relationships where everything is always fine.

WEEK 1 SHOW HOSPITALITY TO ONE ANOTHER

<sup>8</sup> Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. <sup>9</sup> Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. <sup>10</sup> Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. <sup>11</sup> If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Peter 4:8–11

WEEK 2 BEAR THE BURDENS OF ONE ANOTHER

<sup>1</sup> Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted. <sup>2</sup> Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup> If anyone thinks they are something when they are not, they deceive themselves. <sup>4</sup> Each one should test their own actions. Then they can take pride in themselves alone, without comparing themselves to someone else, <sup>5</sup> for each one should carry their own load. Galatians 6:1–5

WEEK 3 PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER

<sup>13</sup> Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray. Is anyone happy? Let them sing songs of praise. <sup>14</sup> Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord. <sup>15</sup> And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise them up. If they have sinned, they will be forgiven. <sup>16</sup> Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective. James 5:13–16

WEEK 4 SING WITH ONE ANOTHER

PERSONAL STUDY: Read the following verses and write down your observations. 15 Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, <sup>16</sup> making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. <sup>17</sup> Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. 18 Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit, <sup>19</sup> speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord, 20 always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. # WEEK 5 BE HUMBLE TOWARD ONE ANOTHER

<sup>5</sup> In the same way, you who are younger, submit yourselves to your elders. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because,

"God opposes the proud but shows favor to the humble."

<sup>6</sup> Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. <sup>7</sup> Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

<sup>29</sup> Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. <sup>30</sup> And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. <sup>31</sup> Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. <sup>32</sup> Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup> by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, <sup>21</sup> and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup> let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup> Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. <sup>24</sup> And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, <sup>25</sup> not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching. # WEEK 8 BE AT PEACE WITH ONE ANOTHER

PERSONAL STUDY: Read the following verses and write down your observations.

<sup>10</sup> Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves. <sup>11</sup> Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord. <sup>12</sup> Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. <sup>13</sup> Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality.

<sup>14</sup> Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. <sup>15</sup> Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. <sup>16</sup> Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited.

<sup>17</sup> Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone. <sup>18</sup> If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. <sup>19</sup> Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord.

8 WEEK BIBLE READING PLAN

5 Minutes a Day

If you're not used to reading the Bible daily, you can start by reading one chapter a day. Over the next two months you will read through six books from the New Testament as you dive into six letters the Apostle Paul wrote to believers of the early church.

5 Ways to Dig Deeper

Below are 5 ways to dig deeper into Scripture. These simple practices are designed to help you slow down and grasp the meaning of the text. Try a method that works best for you.

- 1. Underline or highlight key words or phrases in the passage.
- 2. Read the passage and then summarize it in your own words.
- 3. Ask questions of the text: who, what, why, when, where and how?
- 4. Capture the big idea. What does this passage teach me about God? What does this passage teach me about myself?
- 5. Respond to the text. How would my life be different if I apply one truth from this passage to my everyday life?
