MDP - Narratives

How would you describe the congregation's/organization's specific vision for ministry? How will this vision impact the community? Is the congregation part of a ministry vision or program?

EGPC's vision is shaped by its mission:

How would you describe the congregation's/organization's specific vision for ministry? How will this vision impact the community? Is the congregation part of a ministry vision or program?

- Supporting each person's unique journey with God
- Joining together in joyful and meaningful worship, education, and fellowship, working together to build a better community and world.

We see ourselves as a true community church, with a heart for welcoming seniors, families, and all seeking connection.

Impact on community includes:

- Worship and pastoral care for members and local senior communities
- Partnership with Elk Grove Food Bank and Chicks in Crisis
- Commitment to arts and culture (jazz, gospel, lectures)
- Interfaith collaboration with the Elk Grove Interfaith Council

Our vision impacts Elk Grove by offering a welcoming, needed ministry that models Christ's love and creates spaces of belonging, hope, and service.

What is the nature and context of the community in which your congregation lives out its mission/vision? How will you address the emerging needs that are impacting your community?

EGPC is surrounded by 4+ senior communities; most members live in these neighborhoods.

Community needs include:

- Support for aging populations (pastoral care, fellowship, worship)
- Food insecurity (through Elk Grove Food Bank)
- Family and maternal support (Chicks in Crisis)

What is the nature and context of the community in which your congregation lives out its mission/vision? How will you address the emerging needs that are impacting your community?
