

Guys, you're invited join SouthWoods' men for a Cookout & Royals Game Watch Party on Sunday afternoon, May 19th, immediately after church.

There will be pickleball, cornhole, basketball, and more to play, followed by a Royals Game to watch together on a giant screen.

There will be burgers, brats, and sides to eat. It will be a great opportunity to meet some other guys and have some fun. So plan to join us! We'll be meeting in the Student Center in the West Building, Bay 4.

Since food is going to be involved, please help us by signing up at the website or at the back of the auditorium as soon as possible.

We hope to see you there!
