*Stand, if you are able.

Prayer for Meditation: Jesus Christ, teach us to pray, and to trust the hospitality of God for our daily bread, as our ancestors who ate manna in the wilderness. Let us likewise be hospitable, and as God gives the gift of the Holy Spirit to us, let us give good gifts to those who are in need. Amen.

Prelude: Cornet Voluntary

Welcome, Announcements and Greeting

Due to flu concerns, it's okay not to shake hands. Just greet your neighbor with a smile, a word of greeting, fist or elbow bump. Please pass prayer request cards to the aisle for the ushers during the first hymn. Please sign the Friendship Register and pass it through the pew. If you are visiting with us today, please take a moment to scan the QR code on the 'Connect Card' located on the cover of the Friendship Register. We are so glad you are here! Please see an Usher or Sacristan if you would like: headphones to assist the hearing-impaired, large print bulletins, walker, wheelchair, or activity bags to help busy young children.

Call to Worship: (Leader / Congregation)

Show us your steadfast love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

The Lord will speak peace to the faithful,
to those who turn to God in their hearts.

Surely salvation is at hand for those who fear the Lord,
and God's glory will dwell in our land.

Hymn: 511

The Church's One Foundation

Call to Confession:

Let us turn to the most Holy One and confess our sin,
confident in God's faithful and steadfast love for us.

Prayer of Confession:

Holy One, although we come to church on Sundays,
we too often live the rest of the week as though you don't exist.
We act as though we created ourselves, with no connection to you,
with no hope of transcendence.

Open us to your constant presence, Holy One.

Teach us to pray, and restore our sight,
that we may commune with you each day in the light of eternity. Amen.

Words of Pardon:

Hear this from God's Word: Neither death nor life, powers nor rulers, things present nor future, nor anything else in all creation can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus.

Therefore do not let anyone condemn you or disqualify you from the body, but hold fast to its head, who nourishes growth from God.

And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts.

Shared Joys and Concerns

Pastoral Prayer

Scripture: Luke 11:1-13

One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say: " 'Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation.'" Then Jesus said to them, "Suppose you have a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; a friend of mine on a journey has come to me, and I have no food to offer him.' And suppose the one inside answers, 'Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up and give you anything.' I tell you, even though he will not get up and give you the bread because of friendship, yet because of your shameless audacity he will surely get up and give you as much as you need. "So I say to you: Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. "Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

“ . . . As We Forgive . . . ”

Usually someone learns what we call the Lord's Prayer very early in life, given a church-oriented upbringing. The reason we have received this gift of a prayer is because one of the disciples of Christ was brave enough to ask for it.

When we look at it, it's not a very complicated string of words, as seen in the text according to the writer of Luke. Not many things are said, but a wealth of meaning is still conveyed. It is worth noting, however, that translations vary, for this short and powerful prayer.

So what is contained in this prayer? A reminder to respect and revere God. A wish for God's kingdom not to be contained in heaven, but to be seen throughout creation. A petition for forgiveness, and a reminder to be forgiving in return. And finally a request for deliverance. Within these simple appeals to the Most High we find references to the commandments, a reminder of the thesis statement of Jesus' ministry, a conviction of those praying to live their faith, and a rededication to humility before God, among so many other references that Jesus weaves in.

What's often glossed over in this prayer is the economic tone of the petition for forgiveness—which we see in the English translation that many Christians use: “Forgive us our debts.” Perhaps this is an invitation to ponder why that is, and what it would mean to refocus in this way. What does it mean to forgive those indebted to us? What does it mean to practice biblical Jubilee? What does God's reign look like in a world ruled by money and human greed? Most importantly, what does it look like when the things we pray for transform the way we treat one another?
