

JOIN THE CELEBRATION

The Lititz Moravian Congregation is celebrating its 275th Anniversary with a yearlong celebration. You and your family are invited to celebrate with us!

You can join us any Sunday for worship services at 8:00am or 10:30am and our Sunday School program that starts at 9:15am.

Each second Tuesday we will be hearing from previous Moravian pastors as they share stories about their time in Lititz. On every fourth Sunday we will be hearing about the Moravian history that led up to the start of our congregation.

Check out our schedule of all of the great upcoming events!

UPCOMING EVENTS

APRIL 21, 2024 - Singstunde - 3:00pm

We will host a traditional Moravian Singstunde (Singing Hour) in Fellowship Hall.

The devotional service known as Singstunde dates from the early years of the Moravian revival. The hymns for our service will carry the message of our Anniversary theme: Growing Faith, Sharing Hope, Living Love! Our singing will be accompanied by the Tannenberg organ built right here in Lititz in 1787 for our congregation's new church.

Please mark your calendars now. Invite your family, and friends!

APRIL 27, 2024 - Moravian Music Sunday - 10:30am

The Moravian Church has a rich history of music. Join us on Moravian Music Sunday where we celebrate these traditions with a service that is filled with music provided by all of our music ensembles including our Senior Choir, Trombone Choir, Bell Choir, and more!

May 11, 2024 - SpringFest - 9:00am to Noon
