What are some examples of churches using the wrong means to grow numerically?
Why do you think churches employ such means?

In a post-modern world, truth is understood to be relative. What is the problem with viewing truth in this way?

What is truth? Why is it critically important for us to rightly understand what truth is?

What relationship does God have with truth? How might this inform the relationship between the church and the truth? What are some examples of the church being challenged to hold to the truth today?

In what ways do we see Satan's attack on the truth today? How have you personally been challenged to stand firm in the truth? What are some ways that Christians can firmly stand for and convey truth in our lives?
