This passage gives us a look at Anna's life. Why would Luke spend time highlighting the circumstances of Anna's life? How does Anna's part in the story help us better understand how God uses all sorts of people?

How is Anna's faith demonstrated in this text? In what ways does Anna's story compel us to walk by faith today?

How does Anna respond to Simeon's song in verses 29-32? In what ways is Anna's response an example for us to follow when we are exposed to God's revelation?

Despite many reasons to complain about her circumstances, Anna's response to God's work was marked by gratitude. Would you say your life is marked by gratitude to God? Why or why not? Why do believers often neglect to show gratitude to God in our lives?

How have you been spiritually encouraged by our series in Luke 2? Are there any ways God has uniquely spoken to you by His Spirit?
